$1.5 Million For San Rafael's City Hall Is Urged In Report

DRIVER SURVIVES PLUNGE OFF HILL

Alvis Allen, 31, a landscape gardener of House C-12, Marin City, survived with cuts of face, head, neck and back after his truck went off the California Park grade of Highway 101 south of San Rafael at 8:05 a.m. today, hit the "Pay By Check" sign seen in foreground and plummeted 30 feet down the bank. Allen, who was thrown out, was taken to San Rafael General Hospital. He was unable to remember even being in the truck. California Highway Patrolman A. J. Corvino is inspecting the wreck scene. 2.16 Acres Adjoining Library Suggested

The City of San Rafael should spend one and one-half million dollars to acquire 2.16 acres adjoining the city library site between Fifth and Mission avenues and build there a new city hall and central fire station.

This is the opinion of Ebasco Services, Inc., embodied in a report just delivered to city councilmen.

The city could recover one million dollars of the million and one-half outlay through sale of its present city hall, central fire station and corporation yard properties, Ebasco Services estimates.

The survey firm proposes that the corporation yard be moved from Francisco Boulevard to the Bath House parking lot at Second Street near the Irwin Street overpass. To serve such outlying areas as Terra Linda and Marin Bay, half-acre "satellite" yards should be established in the future.

The report, contained in a 61-page book, is the outgrowth of about two months of studies by the engineering-management consultant firm, which has offices in New York, Chicago, Dallas, Portland, San Francisco and Washington, D.C. The report cost the city $4,000. Edward G. Welsh did the on-the-scene investigation for Ebasco.

The consultant firm rules out the present city hall site as both too small (it is barely over half an acre) and too valuable as a commercial property. It rules out the county courthouse block as likewise too valuable as a site for future commercial development and not available soon enough. It rules out Albert Field because of deed restrictions on the gift of the property to the city by Jacob Albert, which require it be used for recreation.

Four sites were surveyed: that adjoining the library; the E Street School property of 1.89 acres; the block bounded by C and D, Second and Third streets (2.07 acres), and that bounded by Lincoln Avenue, the proposed freeway collector road, and Third and Fourth streets (1.71 acres).

All four of these meet what the firm considers a prime location requirement: They are situated on the perimeter of the downtown business district but not within it. The site adjoining the library at Fifth Avenue and E Street best fulfills this requirement, the firm declares.

Based on current growth projections, the firm estimates that by 1975, the city will need 80,700 square feet of land for city hall and central fire station. By the year 2000, it will need 93,800 square feet (with a double-decked parking structure to take care of the cars). The Fifth Avenue site meets the

72 STILL TRAPPED

Big Blast Deep In German Coal Mine Is Fatal To 107

SAARBRUECKEN, Germany (AP)—A giant explosion ripped through a coal mine today, killing 107 miners and leaving 72 still trapped in caved-in tunnels. Another 85 miners were injured in one of Germany's worst mine disasters.

Authorities said more than 200 workers at the big Saarland Luisenthal mine, hitherto famed for its safety records, had been rescued or managed to escape. They expressed fears that most of those still trapped are dead.

The explosion came about 9 a.m. at a depth of 1,500 feet in the so-called Alsbach layer of the mine at nearby Voelklingen. There was an unexplained flash of flame in the main mine shaft and firedamp ignited with obliterating force, the Saar's State Mining Office said.

Men were hurled against tunnel walls and killed. Some died under the crumbling tunnel ceilings. Others perished in the flames.

One miner came out of the smoking mine telling of being hurled against a tunnel wall by the concussion wave of the explosion.

Rescue workers by the hundreds, including some U.S. soldiers stationed in Germany, struggled to reach those sealed off by the debris.

So widespread was the force of the blast that cave-ins were reported on several levels.

J. F. McConnell Announces For Novato Council

James F. McConnell announced today he has filed for election to the Novato City Council.

McConnell, 30, a resident of Novato for four years, is chief appraiser with the Marin County Savings and Loan Assn. in San Rafael. He is a member of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce and served as chairman of the citizens committee to study residential density in the city's master plan study.

FORUM MEMBER

He was a member of the recreation forum, which assisted in appointing the newly created Novato Parks and Recreation Commission.

He recently appeared before the State Highway Commission to present the results of a chamber of commerce survey of attitudes on the proposed freeway.

McConnell said he is an advocate of low density planning and looks to an eventual population of 100,000 in Novato within the next 40 years. The freeway, he said, should be routed away from the center of town as was done in Petaluma.

FAVORS SYSTEM

He is in favor of the present council-administrator form of government, and believes in citizens committee participation in government, he said. Smoke and smog-free types of industry should be encouraged to locate in Novato, he urged.

One of the major points in his platform is opposition to parking meters, he said.

McConnell is a veteran of Korea where he served with the Seventh Army Division. He was educated at Tamalpais High School and College of Marin. He resides at 25 Plaza Loma with his wife, Carol, and three children, Steve, 6, Kirk, 4, and Bonnie, 2.

MARINWOOD RIFT DUE GRAND JURY

Garety To Present Charges Against Services Unit—Probe May Be Sought

Charges of improper conduct by the Marinwood Community Services District board will be presented to the grand jury next week by Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety.

A Marinwood resident, Mrs. James A. Rowen of 360 Johnstone Drive, carried the allegations to the district attorney yesterday. Mrs. Rowen said she is interested as a private citizen in the "foundation of good government."

Garety said today:

"The complaints do not involve the commission of a crime. There is no indication of a public offense.

"I will confer with the grand jury when it meets Thursday night, and if it seems appropriate, an investigation of the district may be conducted."

He said he preferred "not to go into the specific charges at this time," but added that they are chiefly concerned with the "conduct of the district board, expenditure of funds and operation of the fire department."

One of the principal charges, however, was declared invalid today by the county counsel. Mrs. Rowen had asked the CSD last week to obtain an opinion from the counsel on the legality of one director serving for several months before he took the oath of office.

In a letter to the district, County Counsel E. Warren McGuire said the director, Sami Haddad, was legally able to vote despite the lack of the oath of office.

"The fact that he failed to take the oath," McGuire said today, "does not mean that he has not complied with all other requirements of office, and his vote has been valid on all issues. His actions were taken as a 'de facto' officer rather than a 'de jure' officer."

Mrs. Rowen had cited a state attorney general opinion that a person who had not taken the oath could not act as a public official. But McGuire said the opinion cited is "about 30 years old and the law has changed."

Other charges listed by Mrs. Rowen included:

Bidding procedures were "circumvented." Rather than advertise for bids for park improvement work in excess of $2,000, the CSD split the work into amounts under that figure.

Board minutes were altered instead of being amended.

A secret meeting of the fire commission was held last August.

"Informal" and "special" meetings of the CSD board were conducted, and although announced, persons interested had no chance to attend.

The district fire commission will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Marinwood firehouse. About 12 applications for fire chief may be considered. The district is without a chief since Donald G. Ray quit under fire.

Files for city councilman

R. L. Robinson Files Papers In Mill Valley

Mill Valley attorney Rodric L. Robinson filed his nomination papers yesterday to run for city councilman in the April 10 municipal election.

Robinson, 37, practices law in Mill Valley and San Francisco. He and his wife, Jean, live at 38 Ryan Avenue with their three children, Kevin, 11, Anne, 6, and Jennifer, 3.

Robinson has lived in Mill Valley 13 years. He is a Dartmouth College graduate and has degrees from the University of Chicago and Golden Gate College.

A World War II Navy veteran, he is a director of the Mill Valley Commuters Club, past member of the mayor's committee for Mill Valley library, founding director and legal advisor of the recreation council (project 17), and a member of the Mill Valley Community Church.

Nomination papers have also been taken out for incumbent Councilman Joseph E. Sheeks and A. A. Hemmerling, Mill Valley contractor. Terms of Sheeks and Mayor Robert D. Huber expire. Huber has announced he will not run.

Kennedy Urges Space Network Corporation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy urged Congress today to charter a huge corporation—with shares to be sold to the public and communications firms — to build and run a worldwide space network for radio, television and telephone.

More than one billion dollars in first-class voting stock in the "Communications Satellite Corporation" would be made available to the public and communications carriers at not less than $1,000 a share. Other secondary shares could be purchased only by companies in the communications field.

PROFITS

The corporation would be designed to make a profit—ultimately a good one—from the rental of satellite channels to firms such as telephone and telegraph companies and to other authorized organizations, foreign and domestic.

The satellites, as relay stations in space, would open innumerable channels for international communications and make possible ocean-spanning telecasts.

Kennedy set forth the plan in a letter to the speaker of the House and the president of the Senate. The letter accompanied proposed legislation, "the Communications Satellite Act of 1962," that spelled out the details.

CONTROVERSY

There has been controversy and hearings over who should own the projected satellite communication system — the government, a monopoly by one firm or group of firms, or open to all comers.

Kennedy urged today that both the public and the communications carriers be let in on the deal. Last July he announced he was in favor of private ownership.

The proposal called for the issue of a million shares of Class A voting stock. While these shares would be eligible for dividends, the payoff might be a long time coming.

James Quiett Gets Housing Position

A reversal of ruling by county counsel yesterday confirmed appointment of James Quiett to the board of the Marin County Housing Authority without the additional supervisors' action which had been expected.

The board then promptly named Harold Stockstad of 204 Cardinal Road, Tamalpais Valley, to replace George C. Goheen on the board of the Marin County Redevelopment Agency.

Goheen's letter of resignation from three posts—one of which with the housing authority he actually no longer held—had been read just after County Counsel E. Warren McGuire confessed himself in error.

McGuire said last Tuesday that Robert's Rules of Order seemed to support Supervisor William D. Fusselman's move in changing his "no" vote on Quiett, then moving reconsideration without a second.

But meanwhile, said McGuire, Fred MacDonald of Novato had proved to him that this was "contrary to accepted parliamentary interpretation" through citing authorities that McGuire found valid, as well as providing a telegram from publishers of the Robert book. The net of it was that without a second, the motion died.

"I did it in good faith and had done it before," said Fusselman, conceding that this ruling nullified his try and left Quiett appointed as of last Tuesday. Fusselman added that he wished his changed vote for Quiett to stand, making the appointment by 4-0 vote as George Ludy was absent.

Supervisor Peter Behr, who had proposed Quiett, then said he'd heard that Goheen had resigned and "if so, what's he resigned from?"

This led to reading of the Goheen letter. Behr moved its acceptance, which was voted unanimously.

Behr than moved that Stockstad be appointed to replace

Semi-Nude Photographs Turn Up At Dope Trial

Semi-nude photographs of blonde Anna Maria Kellam, 25, bare from the waist up, turned up this noon during the San Quentin dope-smuggling trial in Marin Superior Court.

Mrs. Kellam, one of the prosecution's chief witnesses, broke down and cried for the first time in the trial, now in its third week.

The blonde mother of four identified two photographs, which Los Angeles attorney Mrs. Frank Duncan suddenly produced. Mrs. Kellam admitted she had given the photographs to convict Clark McKeown, 29.

She testified earlier that she had fallen in love with McKeown while visiting San Quentin to bring in heroin and to see her inmate husband.

The defense continued to delve into her personal life in an effort to discredit her in the eyes of the jury.

Mrs. Duncan, asked Mrs. Kellam: "Do you know a man about 5 feet 6, bald headed,

NORTH MARIN FLUORIDATION VOTE EYED

A proposal to fluoridate public water supplies may be put before North Marin voters.

Directors of the North Marin Water District last night reviewed a Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce survey which showed 66 per cent of those queried favored fluoridation. The board then directed Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager, to prepare a statement of cost of fluoridation and of the steps necessary to put it to a vote.

Fluoridation has been defeated twice in recent years both times by narrow votes—in Marin Municipal Water District. It has never been put to a vote in the North Marin district.

JFK Held Pushing For Steel Accord

An AP News Analysis
By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy reportedly wants a steel labor settlement in a matter of weeks. If there is delay, he has full power to head off a midyear strike and a disruptive steel inventory buildup as well.

The reason is that the 80-day cooling-off procedures of the Taft-Hartley Act can be invoked to prevent a strike from occurring as well as to stop one that has already started.

With both the president and Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg saying repeatedly that a steel strike at this stage of half-developed economic recovery is unthinkable, it's logical to assume the administration wouldn't let a steel walkout occur if threatened.

But besides not wanting a strike the administration wants to avoid the usual overstocking of steel in advance of a strike threat. Both Kennedy and Goldberg have said this should be avoided as economically disruptive—a production letdown inevitably following a production buildup.

Thus if the industry and Steelworkers Union fail to heed the administration's advice to come up with an early settlement, it should surprise no one if the president lets it be known publicly he intends to trigger the Taft-Hartley procedures into effect early.

A promise of this sort—that there would be no strike when present steel contracts expire on June 30—certainly would substantially discourage steel customers from overstocking.

If all this came about, the threat of any steel strike would be put off from July 1 to past mid-September when the 80-day no-strike period ran out. Even then the odds probably would be against a walkout because Congress, too, could step in to prevent one.

Such discussion is perhaps premature. It's still early in the game. The Steelworkers Union is to come up with its demands for contract changes today in Pittsburgh. Such demands are traditionally a statement of goals rather than realistically expected attainments.

Right now the administration is pouring the heat on both sides to get going toward an early agreement. A settlement date goal is rumored to be March 1 or soon thereafter. It is known officials fear stockpiling will get under way in earnest in the second quarter, April through June.

Faced with this situation, the industry and union probably will engage in some intense informal and behind-scenes negotiating in next few weeks.

A key factor could be Kaiser Steel, a relatively small producer compared with U.S. Steel or other industry giants. But it was Kaiser that settled early in 1959 on terms that fairly well fixed the settlement pattern for the rest of the industry.

A group of prominent labor experts headed by Prof. George W. Taylor of the University of Pennsylvania is operating as a public advisory panel to Kaiser and the union. This group met recently at Palm Springs, Calif., in preliminary talks with Board Chairman Edgar Kaiser and top union officials.

Other major producers, fully aware of the Kaiser meetings, have their fingers crossed. It's one of the pressures that are going to make the next few weeks, rather than the next few months, a crucial period.

Fight Poverty, Kennedy Tells Japan Youth

OSAKA, Japan (AP) — U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy challenged Japan's youth today to join in a worldwide fight against poverty, ignorance and disease.

"As young people, we can do battle together as brothers to make great progress," Kennedy told students at a petroleum institute in the heart of Japan's teeming industrial area.

Enthusiastic students mobbed Kennedy when he arrived, reaching to shake his hand and shouting hello. Everywhere Kennedy went on this second leg of his six-day visit to Japan he received a warm, friendly welcome.

As his motorcade sped through the countryside villagers and farm workers gathered to wave. At one point he leaned out to shake hands campaign style, and a student handed him an amulet intended to safeguard travelers.

Kennedy questioned the students at the petroleum institute closely about their studies and told them: "You have the responsibility to help in the fight that has to be fought by all young people throughout the world against poverty, ignorance and disease."

Several students asked what young Americans feel about the future.

"They feel that great problems are facing us," Kennedy replied. "But they also feel the future has great potential.

"We, as young people, know what great accomplishments can be made."

Kennedy, who flew with his wife to Osaka from Toyko this morning, also toured an electrical plant that turns out 100,000 TV sets a month.

The Kennedys lunched with the workers and union officials on whale steak.

The visit to Osaka, Nara and Kyoto is taking the American visitors through some of the most beautiful and historic parts of old Japan.

Stockpiling Inquiry Has Political Flavor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats hinted broadly today they believe they have found the fuse for some political explosions against the Republicans in the forthcoming stockpiling inquiry.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota told an informal news conference yesterday he expects some "interesting revelations" when a committee headed by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) inquires into what President John F. Kennedy calls the excessive storage of strategic materials.

While Humphrey would not elaborate, it was learned from other sources the Democrats expect some high figures of the Eisenhower administration to be illuminated in an unfavorable political light by disclosures before the Symington committee.

It was emphasized that preliminary investigations have disclosed no illegalities. But there was said to be ample evidence of what Kennedy said could prove to be "unconscionable" profits.

As an example, a senator who didn't want to be quoted by name said he had been informed that agreements had been made under which processing plants had been built and accelerated depreciation granted. A high price set on the product to finance its production was not reduced after the plant had been fully depreciated for tax purposes.

Republicans — and some Democrats — think the inquiry will cut both ways politically. They say the blame for the failure of the government to get lower prices and its purchase of excessive amounts of materials will fall on members of both parties.

They note that the program got its first impetus under the Truman administration, with which Symington was associated as secretary of the Air Force, chairman of the National Security Resources Board, and Reconstruction Finance Corp. administrator.

In one aspect of the stockpiling matter, the General Services Administration said yesterday it had sold 3.4 million pounds of feathers from storage since October 1960.

This announcement came after Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del.) had let it be known he had asked GSA for a report on whether it had sold two million pounds of deteriorated feathers and down which Congress had authorized it to dispose of last September.

GSA declined to say how much it had got for the material it sold. Symington told the Senate last fall that the average cost to GSA of feathers was $2.25 a pound and $6 for down.

He said there had been sales in August 1961 at $1.04 a pound for feathers and $3.37 a pound for down.

Williams contended that some of the feathers and down had been bought on the black market during price controls in effect in the Korean War era. He said the price of feathers had shot up from 90 cents to $2.25 a pound in a short time.

Argentina Diplomatic Break With Cuba Is Reported Near

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Argentina will break relations with Cuban's Communist regime later this week, a Foreign Ministry spokesman said last night.

The report, which the spokesman said was unofficial, coincided with a boycott by Argentina's three service secretaries and 24 top military officers of a banquet President Arturo Frondizi gave for visiting former King Leopold of Belgium.

Instead, the military leaders held a meeting reportedly to discuss the government's attitude to their demands that Argentina's foreign policy be swung to the right. Military sources said the military leaders intend to boycott all such functions until Argentina breaks with Fidel Castro's regime.

The military began pressuring Frondizi for a break with Cuba after Argentina and five other nations at the inter-American conference last week abstained on a resolution ordering expulsion of the Cuban government from the Organization of American States.

In an effort to appease the military, Frondizi recalled the Argentine ambassador to Havana but reportedly favored a gradual approach to a full break with Castro.

Measure On Education In Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — An uncertain fate in a Senate-House conference committee awaits President John F. Kennedy's college education bill.

The Senate late yesterday passed 69 to 17 the $2,674,000,000-measure containing in full Kennedy's requests for student scholarships and classroom construction funds.

EARLY VOTE

The vote came a few hours after the president sent to the Capitol his education message asking for the funds for higher education institutions as well as a broad range of other aids.

Some members of Congress believe that the college bill is the only one likely to become law this year.

The key Senate question was if administration lieutenants could hold the scholarship section in the bill They did so by a 50-37 margin after a determined fight.

Forty-five Democrats and five Republicans joined to defeat the amendment of Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio) to knock out the scholarships. It was supported by 26 Republicans and 11 Democrats.

HOUSE VERSION

The House version of the legislation, however, contains only the 1.5 billion dollars asked by the president for classroom construction. Democratic leaders in that branch dropped any effort to insert scholarships in the face of heavy opposition.

Some of the likely House conferees on the bill personally have favored federal scholarships in the past, but have said they will be bound by the majority House position.

Cuba Enacts Tighter Money Law

HAVANA (AP) — The Cuban government enacted new regulations last night to give it tighter control over monetary transactions and aid it in "the cardinal task of reaching in a short time the Socialist ordaining" of production.

The new law will make cash practically obsolete in transactions between business organizations.

It specifies that most of the few remaining private business es and all government enterprises shall make "all payments and collections through the agencies of the National Bank."

All business transactions must be accompanied by invoices and official bank transfer forms. Cash payments may be made only after obtaining special permission from the National Bank, Cuba's sole banking institution.

Brown asks a 5 per cent raise across the board, retroactive to Jan. 1, with 2.1 million dollars for inequities.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Cuba's charge in the United Nations that the United States is planning new aggression against Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime appears fated to wind up as an oratory exercise with the General Assembly taking no action whatever.

A huge mass of cold air held a firm grip across most of the nation from the Rockies eastward to New England today. The freezing line extended deep into Dixie.

Below zero weather again chilled most of the north central region. The raw, northerly winds spread the biting cold into the Northeast and below zero temperatures stung sections of New England and upstate New York.

The South felt the effects of the fast-moving cold mass. Readings in the 30s cooled the eastern Gulf Coast and northern Florida. It was below freezing, 31, in Mobile, Ala.

Reds Hit 'Copters

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —Two U.S. Army helicopters have been lost and three others hit by Communist fire in two combat operations in three days. There have been no casualties among the American crewmen or Vietnamese soldiers aboard, but a U.S. source reported the Communists "are getting our range."

"They're learning to aim ahead of us, to compensate for the forward movement of the aircraft," the informant said after one helicopter crashed and two others were hit while ferrying Vietnamese government troops into action yesterday.

It was not determined whether the plane that crashed went down because of enemy fire or mechanical trouble. But one helicopter was shot down and another hit in a similar operation Sunday.

—AND THE CAR JUST GRINNED

Front of little sports car which overturned on its driver yesterday in Corte Madera appears to be wearing a rakish grin after the accident. Not grinning was the driver, Mrs. Edith W. Curren, 26, of Gate 5, Sausalito, who was trapped for two minutes under the car. However, she escaped with only cuts and bruises. Flip-over happened when the car hit divider strip on Tamalpais Drive at 8:40 p.m. yesterday. (Independent-Journal photo)

NWP Can't Lease Tiburon Property, Board Is Informed

Northwestern Pacific Railroad "is not in position to consider lease of its Tiburon waterfront property to Marin County or anybody else," county supervisors were told yesterday.

A letter from the railroad's general manager, George Morrison, said that except for the ferry slip and adjacent land to a total width of 360 feet, all the waterfront property is under lease to Milton Tonini with an option to purchase.

All remaining Tiburon property is required for the railroad's own operations, Morrison wrote.

Mrs. Palmer Field of Tiburon, who has spearheaded efforts to acquire the property for public use, thanked the board for ascertaining the facts.

But, she went on, what about a possibility of condemning the land and then letting the open-area enthusiasts get it on a lease?

"If we condemn we must buy at reasonable market value," said Supervisor Peter Behr. He said that if it's desired to form an assessment district as a means of raising cash for purchase, the county counsel's office would be happy to help.

"Could the county help?" asked Mrs. Field with obvious reference to the hard cash aspects.

"In view of the amount budgeted for parks and recreation," replied Behr, "I wouldn't be too jubilant over the prospects."

B. D. Dobbs, principal planner of the county planning staff, said the county parks recreation commission had asked a chance to study the whole matter. So the supervisors promptly referred the issue to this group.

Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham reported to Behr that he had completed most of the preliminaries for a "Tiburon protest meeting" recently requested by Behr as a means of letting opponents of a bridge landing on the Tiburon Peninsula express their objections.

Decision was finally made to set the gathering for March 2 at 8 p.m. in some courtroom of the county court house.

AF Rules Out Outer Planet Spacecraft

WASHINGTON (AP) — They might have been birds, balloons, hoaxes or unusual sky lights — but not spacecraft from other planets.

That is the word from the Air Force today after 15 years of investigating flying saucer reports. It said there was no evidence that any of the 7,369 unidentified flying objects checked on were spaceships swooping in from distant planets.

To date, no unidentified flying object—UFO—has given any indication of threat to the national security, the Air Force concluded in summing up its investigations from 1947 through last year.

'BLUE BOOK'

It said its "Project Blue Book" has turned up no evidence that any of the unidentified sightings represented technological advances "beyond the range of our present day scientific knowledge," or that any of the UFO's were "extraterrestrial vehicles under intelligent controls."

During 1961, the Air Force's office of aerial phenomena probed into 488 UFO reports—26 fewer than the year before.

At year's end, only 10 of the 1961 sightings still were classified as unidentified. Most of the rest were traced to aircraft, balloons, satellites, astronomical phenomena, birds, lights, hoaxes and other causes.

BEACON FLASH

The report disclosed that a new experimental beacon designed to prevent airliner collisions has been mistaken by some persons as an unidentified flying object. The beacon is intense and flashes for a fraction of a second.

"It has been seen as much as 50 miles away and at that distance only the light could be seen, thereby producing a rather startling sight," the Air Force said.

Recently, too, there were widespread reports to the Air Force of flashing objects in the sky. Investigation revealed that these were caused by the earth's passing through meteor showers, the report said.

Romney Says If He Runs, He'll Quit Job

DETROIT (AP)—George Romney indicated today if he runs for the Republican nomination for governor of Michigan he will resign as both president and chairman of American Motors Corp.

Speaking to AMC's annual stockholders meeting Romney said at one point:

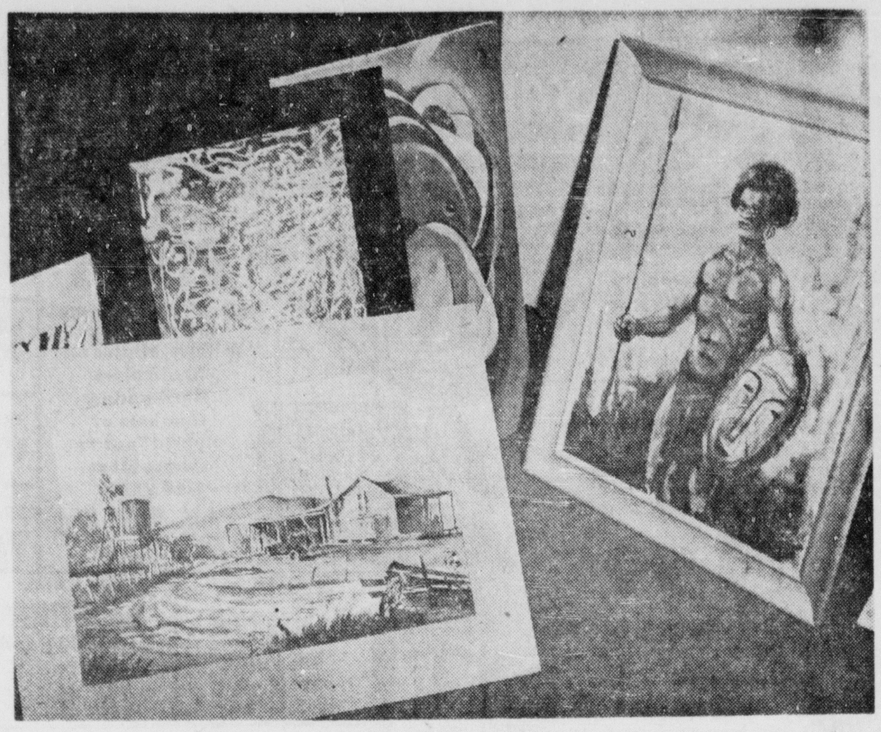
The only reason I have seriously entertained the suggestion that I might devote my full time to public service is that I know American Motors is in sound shape."

Romney told newsmen before addressing stockholders that "I have not, absolutely have not" made a decision on whether to run for the nomination.

He told both newsmen and stockholders he will not announce a decision until a previously announced news conference he has called for 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

Regarding his political future, Romney told stockholders:

"Ever since I began to express concern as a private citizen about the physical and other plights of the State of Michigan, both friends and critics have suggested that my intention was to run for some political office, and I have been flabbergasted by some of the offices whose doors they seem to want to shove me into."



SMUGGLED OUT OF PRISON?

These pictures, among others, bearing the names of San Quentin Prison inmate artists, were introduced yesterday at the trial of four persons allegedly engaged in a prison dope smuggling ring. The paintings —much too large for easy concealment—were spirited out of the prison by one of the defendants, contended prosecutor Bruce B. Bales. See story on page 1. (Independent-Journal photo)

Board Sets Up Marin Civil Defense Unit

A new Marin County Disaster and Civil Defense Council was set up yesterday by supervisors' appointment of 13 "interested citizens" as an "idea-generating group."

The action was pushed through mainly by Supervisor Peter Behr, although he was admittedly lukewarm on the efficiency of a shelter program declared the council's prime objective. There was some protest by Supervisor William D. Fusselman, who said he wanted a fully representative group with all city managers as members.

"I'm not especially interested but I want to move it along," said Behr.

"We've been criticized, we've got to get started," said chairman Walter R. Castro.

"The role of this council, once it got going," said Administrator Alan Bruce, "would be to recommend to your board regarding civil defense in the unincorporated areas and the eight cities integrated with our plan, not including Sausalito and Larkspur. We don't plan a representative group or an action group but an idea-generating group."

Basis for the council were a dozen names put forward by Jean Smith, assistant director of disaster and civil defense for the county. Supervisor William Gnoss promptly obtained permission to add Novato City Administrator J. Julien Baget as one especially informed on civil defense.

The board appointed Mrs. Smith's group plus Baget with instruction to report back in 30 days on what plans seem feasible. It was provided that additions to the list might be made by the supervisors in future.

Novato Council Delays On Highway Location

A three-man majority of the Novato City Council last night delayed putting the city on record as to location of the future Highway 101 freeway pending another meeting with State Division of Highways and Marin County Planning Department representatives.

Mayor Wayne Womack and Councilman M. E. Silva voted against delay, asserting they were ready to go on record "right now."

However, Councilman Charles R. Johnson read from a prepared statement citing that state and county had "reached different sets of conclusions" on future local traffic and this was "important enough to warrant a special meeting."

Councilman John Angeloni said the highway "should be kept in its present location or moved completely out of town." He then said expense of maintaining the present highway as a city street should be considered before proposing relocation.

Councilman Everett Pozzi joined in voting for the special meeting, no date for which was suggested.

Angeloni, Johnson and Pozzi all own businesses along the present highway.

A petition against keeping the highway in its present location, bearing 2,226 signatures, was presented by Alfred W. Bowman, chairman of the city-chamber of commerce freeway committee.

No one in the audience of about 40 except Bowman spoke on the freeway, relocation of which has been urged since before Novato's incorporation and was an issue in the first municipal election in which four of the present councilmen were elected (Angeloni having since been appointed).

The city has until Feb. 18 to present its decision to the state division of highways. Embodied in the motion for a special meeting was a directive that City Administrator J. Julien Baget try to obtain a delay of that deadline.

In response to a question, County Planning Director Mary Summers said the division of highways could put the freeway on its present route without a freeway agreement by the city if it does not close off any city streets.

Mayor Authorized To Apply For Grant On Master Plan

Mayor Wayne Womack last night was authorized by the Novato City Council to sign the necessary papers to apply for a federal grant toward a master plan and aerial survey.

The master plan, as presented by County Planning Director Mary Summers, would cost $70,463. However, Marin County, the Novato Sanitary District and North Marin County Water District have asked for a more complete aerial mapping job, so the total bill will be $82,525.

The federal government would pay $46,975 and the city $23,487, if the grant goes through. The city, however, would pay only $14,850 in cash for its share. The county, and sanitary district will each pay $6,400 and the water district, $7,900.

Drake High Sets Art Contest

The Sir Francis Drake High School Art Club will sponsor its second annual art contest during the week beginning next Tuesday. Winning entries will be displayed in the library windows.

Awards will be given in the fields of painting, pen and ink sketches, modern art, collages, ceramics, sculpture, mosaics, prints and photographs, according to the number and quality of the work.

Three Drake faculty members will judge the entries and ribbons will be presented to the first, second and third place winners in each division.

Evening Registration

College of Marin Counselors will be available from 6:30 to 7:20 p.m. Friday in room 8 of Harlan Hall to register students for evening credit classes, Dr. Ellsworth R. Briggs, adult school dean, announced.

Two English Teachers To Attend Conference

Two Tamalpais Union High School District teachers will attend the fourth annual conference of the California Assn. of Teachers of English Feb. 23-25 in San Diego.

They are Edward C. Bode of 248 West Blithedale Terrace, Mill Valley, chairman of the Tamalpais High School English department, and Maurine Ballard of 321 El Portal Drive, San Rafael, chairman of the Redwood High School English department.

Dedication Job Taken On By Chamber

San Rafael Chamber of Commerce volunteered to the county supervisors yesterday to provide professional guidance on the forthcoming civic center dedication. The offer was snapped up unanimously, with thanks.

County Auditor-Controller Leon A. de Lisle reported the civic center committee recognized magnitude of the dedication task as considerable—particularly if it proves possible to lure President John F. Kennedy as guest of honor.

"It was evident that we are going to need professional advice in sundry fields, and a great deal of legwork to make the thing a success," said de Lisle.

He said the chamber had proposed to act as "professional advisers," and if this were accepted, the chamber would make this dedication its prime project of the year.

George Krusz, chamber manager, said "this appears to be an opportunity where the chamber can be of service." He added, "We have no wish to set policy but we would be a coordinating agency."

"Excellent!" declared Supervisor Peter Behr. "Wonderful!" chimed in Supervisor Walter R. Castro.

20 Parents Hear English Discussed

About 20 parents last night heard a discussion of the teaching of English in the Fairfax School District.

Explaining teaching methods were Mrs. Virginia Bergin, first grade teacher at Manor School; William Lemley, Manor School fifth grade teacher; and Helen Hough, Central School seventh grade teacher.

District trustees were scheduled to present their individual versions of board philosophy at the Feb. 20 meeting for eventual inclusion in a new policy handbook, Supt. Homer L. Sisk said.

Marin General Hospital Offers Indigent Plan

Marin General Hospital yesterday offered to care for Marin County's indigent chronically ill patients at cost.

Displaying much interest, county supervisors asked for and were promised an early estimate of what the cost might be.

Another private offer to provide county hospital facilities was put forward by Health Services Management Consultants of San Francisco, but without specific cost figures.

Another proposal was withdrawn. Attorney Peter Allen Smith wrote that his unnamed client was no longer interested in building a nursing home to care for county patients at $350 per month each.

The Marin General Hospital letter, signed by Dr. Wilson P. Goddard, president of the hospital district board, said a study of total health needs of the county has been started.

Pending results of this investigation by a citizens advisory council and trustees of the William Babcock Memorial Endowment, said the letter, the district offers to build long-term chronic bed facilities if the study indicates need.

Until completion of this the hospital would house and care for the chronically ill indigent at cost on completion of the Babcock wing next spring.

Marin General Hospital is approved under the state medical aid for the aged program, said Goddard.

"Prior architectural study," the letter concluded, "has established more than one suitable area for further construction on the Marin General acreage."

Supervisor George Ludy expressed apprehension that "if you send chronic patients to Marin General you'll be paying for acute illness beds." This led to argument over figures, culminating when the hospital's administrator William Turner said that if Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy Jr., county physician, "will give me the number of hours of care he wants, I can price it."

Supervisor William D. Fusselman promptly moved that Dufficy be instructed to provide the necessary information. The board approved.

There's Reason They're Called Public Servants

If a sea lion dies on your doorstep, call your county supervisor.

That's what Mrs. Sydney F. Boyle of Stinson Beach did.

Mrs. Boyle told County Supervisor Peter H. Behr yesterday she was plagued by presence of a dead sea lion on the beach. Would he do something about it?

Behr turned the job over to County Administrator Alan Bruce.

Bruce tried the Coast Guard, the Humane Society, the sheriff's office, the county health department, and the county fire department.

All he got was a suggestion from the fire department to douse the seal with oil and burn it.

Then he tried the county public works department. It did the job.

A county road crew under foreman Manuel Fostine dug a grave and buried the sea lion.

requirements 40 years hence—about 10 years less than the present city hall has been in use.

On the other had, Ebasco founds the present 7.8-acre corporation yard on Francisco Boulevard is nearly four times as big as needed, besides being poorly located.

Much time and efficiency are lost by the present diffusion of city departments—with some in city hall, some in the E Street School and the recreation department at Albert Field—the report asserts.

Ebasco proposes a three-story city hall, of concrete and steel frame with aluminum and glass window-walls, on the Fifth Avenue property. It estimates such a building could be erected and furnished for a total cost of $26.50 per square foot. A 24,000-square foot building is proposed, making the cost $640,000 (the present city hall cost $25,000 in 1909).

The central fire station, in either one or two stories, could be built at $20 per square foot, Ebasco estimates. It proposes this contain 8,600 square feet, plus fire department offices totaling 1,225 square feet at $26.50, for a total of $204,500.

A new corporation yard-garage could be built for $66,500 (at $7.50 a square foot), the firm estimates.

This makes total building costs $911,000. Land acquisition is estimated at $500,000; site development, $13,000; parking, $16,000; landscaping, $15,000, and furniture, $45,000—a grand total of an even one and one-half million dollars.

If two-thirds of this were realized from sale of the present city hall, central fire station and corporation yard, the remaining outlay would be a half-million dollars. City Manager Dan E. Andersen has said that amount is available from the city's reserves, if the city council wishes to avoid a bond issue. (Interest on a bond issue virtually doubles the cost over a 20-year period.)

Ebsco Services' report includes 21 pages of detailed description of city hall requirements, including office sizes and general layout, lighting, heating, materials, etc., intended as basic specifications from which an architect could design the building.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed higher again today, chalking up its seventh straight daily rise.

Final dealings were heavy. The ticker tape lagged behind transactions as further gains were made.

It was another session that began uncertainly, with the apparent likelihood that the list would sink under profit-taking as the day wore on. The reverse happened.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4 million shares compared with 3.65 million yesterday.

NARCOTICS

hooked nose, about 50 years of age, and has blue eyes?"

Mrs. Kellam nodded and identified him as a "David Newman," she said she worked as bookkeeper for him last year.

"In Oakland, were you living with a man posing as your husband?" Mrs. Duncan demanded. Prosecutor Bruce B. Bales objected, and Judge N. Charles Brusatori ruled the question out of order.

"Did he ever support you last year?" the woman attorney pressed.

Tears welled in Mrs. Kellam's eyes as she shook her head and replied with a quiet "no."

Mrs. Kellam has testified her husband is in San Quentin, and she did smuggle heroin into prison, delivering it to Clark McKeown, another inmate.

Prison smuggling has involved art as well as narcotics, it was disclosed yesterday.

Prosecutor Bales produced nine paintings, we believe to have been taken out of San Quentin. (See photo, page 4)

Among them were three oils by the prison's top artist, Jose Angel Calderon, who won the best of show last August at the prison art show. Three water colors were by another inmate artist, Carl Pramberg.

Under cross-examination, Frank Yetter of Niles, stepfather of convict McKeown, testified the paintings were brought to his home by Mrs. Marie Frances Hall, 47, of Hayward, one of the four accused of conspiring to smuggle dope into prison. Yetter said McKeown told him he had bought the paintings from other inmates.

S. Bruce Scidmore, attorney for Mrs. Hall, yesterday moved for a mistrial for Mrs. Hall on grounds that the prosecutor had failed to produce various police and investigative reports to the defense in time. But this morning, Scidmore withdrew the mistrial motion. He explained Mrs. Hall cannot afford another trial if a mistrial were granted for her alone.

'Satisfactory' After Overdose Of Aspirin

Darek Anthony Wharton of Sausalito was in "satisfactory" condition today at Ross General Hospital after he had reportedly taken 70 aspirin tablets at about 5 p.m. yesterday at his apartment at 725 Bridgeway.

Police Chief Howard Goerndt said his office received a call saying Wharton was threatening suicide and learned that Wharton was "unhappy over a woman."

Novato Firm Files For Incorporation

SACRAMENTO (CNS) —Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan anounced the Novato Builders Supply has filed articles of incorporation with his office, to be capitalized at $75,000 in $10 par shares.

Directors of the company were listed as John L. and Ethel G. Castleman, 20 Cushing Drive, and William A. Fleming, 145 Marlin Avenue, all of Mill Valley.

Attorneys Given Row Over Novato's Smith

The "legal obligation" of the Novato Unified School District board to re-hire former Supt. William J. J. Smith was turned over to opposing attorneys last night — as the board continued to seek Smith's replacement.

Attorney Arthur M. Lebow of San Rafael, hired by the "Free Thinking Committee" to defend Smith, reportedly stated the trustees had a legal obligation to reinstate the superintendent who resigned on Dec. 19.

County Counsel E. Warren McGuire said that (1) if there was a resignation, the automatic renewal clause in Smith's contract would be void, and (2) the resignation appeared to be effective unless there was proof Smith resigned "involuntarily," or on condition of offering negotiations on a new contract.

The board agreed last night to let the two attorneys come to an agreement, if possible, before considering further action.

Meanwhile, the trustees were informed by Dr. Theodore Reller of the University of California that he would submit names of three persons to serve as a screening committee to review applications for Smith's job. The committee, Reller said, would submit selected names to the board for final approval.

Last night's meeting was held in the Marion School library so as to accommodate the crowd in attendance.

Terrorists Defy DeGaulle, Explode Six Bombs in Paris

PARIS (UPI)—Defiant terrorists today exploded six bombs in Paris, one of them in the home of Culture Minister Andre Malraux, noted French author.

President Charlees de Gaulle and his cabinet debated new measures to crush violent extremist opposition to his Algerian peace plans as the bombings were taking place.

A seventht bomb was found only three blocks from the presidential palace where the cabinet was meeting but was rendered harmless before it could explode.

About two hours before the cabinet met, a bomb exploded on the ground floor window sill in the suburban building where Malraux lives. Malraux, one of France's most famous writers and a close friend and advisor to de Gaulle, was not at home.

But a 4-year-old girl and a woman were injured in the explosion.

Police said it seemed certain that the bombing was the work of the outlawed Secret Army Organization (OAS).

The OAS has sworn to keep Algeria French and has threatened to wage civil war if necessary to stop de Gaulle from carrying out his program for self-determination.

Sanitary Board Member Named

George A. Bertram of 15 Woodland Road, Kentfield, owner of the Marin Trailer Court in Greenbrae, was appointed last night to the Corte Madera Sanitary District Board.

The directors set a public hearing for 7:30 p.m. March 6 on annéxation of the Uplands Subdivision, which is across Paradise Drive from the new San Clemente School.

Chile National Flower Presented To Sausalito

Sausalito received a Lapageria Rosea — the national flower of Chile — last night from the Strybing Arboretum in Golden Gate Park as a goodwill gesture on behalf of its sister city, Vina Del Mar, Chile.

The vine, commonly called Chilean Bell Flower, was presented to the city to be planted in Vina Del Mar Plaza, by Charles H. Merrill Jr., chairman of the Sausalito People-to-People Committee.

2-Car Crash Lands Women In Hospital

Two women were hospitalized yesterday after they were involved in a two-car collision in Corte Madera just after noon.

In satisfactory condition today at San Rafael General Hospital were Mabel White, 77, of 179 Pine Street, San Anselmo, with an injured right shoulder; and Mary Ann Garrett, 35, of 75 Woodland Avenue, apartment 1, San Rafael, with an injured back. Both were taken to Marin General Hospital by Marin Ambulance before transfer to San Rafael General.

Mrs. White was a passenger in a car driven by Philip Warner Temple, 70, retired Oakland truck driver. Also in the car was Mrs. Temple, sister of Mrs. White. Mr. and Mrs. Temple were not injured.

Corte Madera police reported Temple's east bound car was attempting to turn left off Tamalpais Drive onto Madera Boulevard when it was struck by the west bound car driven by Mrs. Garrett.

Senate Unit To Challenge McNammara

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators voted today to challenge the refusal by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to let his staff tell who censored specific speeches by military men.

Subcommittee Chairman John Stennis (D-Miss.) said the group voted unanimously to call back Willis D. Lawrence, one of the top Pentagon censors, and order him to tell who censored a speech by Lt. Gen. Arthur G. Trudeau.

Lawrence will be recalled at a session tomorrow.

The secretary has refused to tell the subcommittee who on his staff censored which speech, and has forbidden his aides to tell, either. He said that he would assume the full responsibility.

Lawrence had been the first to cite the orders as a basis for refusing to give such information in a hearing.

Given Fine, Jail Term For Punching Musician

Stan Massie, 35, who gave his address as San Rafael, yesterday was ordered to pay $140 fine or spend 28 days in jail in Los Angeles for punching musician Bobby Troup outside a night club there on May 20, United Press-International reported today.

An additional $25 fine on Massie's conviction for disturbing the peace was suspended by Municipal Judge Harold C. Shepherd.

Firehouse Turned Over To District

The Homestead Valley Firemans Assn. turned their firehouse over to the Tamalpais Fire Protection District Monday at a meeting of the volunteer firemen, to be used as one of the two firehouses in the newly-consolidated Tamalpais Fire Protection District.

Officiating in the turnover were club president Frank Martinez and secretary Dale Mizer, who had signed a quick-claim deed. The firehouse was accepted by district commissioners Carl H. Modell and Charles Woodworth, who reside in the Homestead area.

The second firehouse in the Tamalpais Valley firehouse.

Secretary Injured In Waldo Accident

Gloria Mudge, secretary living at 969 West Vernal Avenue, Mill Valley, suffered scrapes of the right leg and hip in a collision while driving down the Waldo Grade bound for San Francisco at 8:40 a.m. today. She was treated at Marin General Hospital.

California Highway Patrol investigation indicated that Miss Mudge's southbound car went into a skid on rain-soaked pavement. It was then rammed by a sedan driven by Homer H. Freed of 16 Kinross Drive, San Rafael.

Goheen on the Redevelopment Agency.

This seemed to surprise everyone.

"I wouldn't want to vote yes on this," said Fusselman. "I'm not too sure of his capacity. He has been a rather constant supporter of the civic center. In fact, all the things I've been for, he's been in here opposing."

The confirmation was by 4-1 vote, with Fusselman in opposition.

Stockstad, a structural engineer with offices in San Francisco, described himself last night as "mainly a worker for the civic center, since 1958 very active with citizens groups."

He was first chairman of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs, originally called "Citizens for the Civic Center," formed last January to oppose the civic center stop-work order.

More Water Pollution Woes Pour In

Further complaints from the Bay Area Water Pollution Control Board concerning sewage disposal in bay waters were heard yesterday by county supervisors, who asked the county health department to do everything possible to bring compliance.

Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham said a survey is needed of operations of the Hawthorne Terrace Sewer Maintenance District. He said its plant should be shut down, and its sewage processed by the Richardson Bay Sanitary District's Trestle Glen plant.

But, Brigham said, residents were discouraged when told the cost would be about $400 a household. He was asked to check possibilities further and report again next week.

A lengthy technical communication from the control board set forth shortcomings of the Venetia Harbor Sewer Maintenance District operation, citing its long-range resolution on control of the whole Gallinas Valley.

This went to the health department to join other communications lately received along the same line.

A letter from W. B. Kyle about the high iron content in water furnished to his newly purchased Inverness home likewise went to the health department.

THIS SMOOCH LED TO A BLACKOUT

LONG BEACH (AP) — Oftimes a kiss can lead to dimming the parlor lights.

A sailor's smooch, however, blacked out a whole neighborhood in the predawn hours today, police said.

The sailor, Kenneth Oliver Starnes, 21, was driving along Santa Fe Avenue about 2:40 a.m. when he leaned over to buss girl friend Jodi McDonald.

Officers said Starnes' car hit a power pole near 19th Street, knocking down power lines and blacking out a mile stretch of Santa Fe Avenue.

Starnes suffered a slight cut on the wrist. Miss McDonald went to a hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises on the face and head.

Fish And Game Arrests Told

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Fish and Game wardens are arresting an average of six to eight persons per month on charges of violating a new statute which makes it illegal to deposit rubbish, bottles, and cans within 150 feet of a stream or other inland waters.

The Department of Fish and Game says the majority of arrents are for flagrant violations where fairly large quantities of rubbish are dumped.

Some heavy fines and jail sentences have been imposed, as well as clean-up orders.

Supervisors Grant Pay Raises Despite Denial Recommendation

Special step increases were approved yesterday for four county employees despite Administrator Alan Bruce's recommendation to the board of supervisors that the promotions be denied.

Because of exceptional circumstances surrounding the promotions, Bruce agreed to the four increases but said such special treatment would not be necessary during the remaining fiscal year.

The supervisors voted unanimously to advance:

Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell from $930 a month to $975; Tabulating Supervisor Arleigh R. Sewell, from $807 to $846; Sheriff's Inspector Guido Battaglia, from $609 to $638; and Supervising Probation Officer J. Paul Dowdall, from $669 to $701.

All four had received "inequity adjustments" Jan. 1 along with other employees whose salaries were considered out of line with comparable jobs elsewhere.

This put them in a new top salary range which kept them from sharing otherwise automatic increases. Their department heads said the four were treated unfairly compared with 30 other employees who received raises last October.

Bruce granted there was some merit for giving the jobs special consideration but "never-the-less my Scotch heritage dictates that the longevity concept has been over-liberalized with an unintended multiplier effect, and a line must be drawn somewhere."

Supervisor George H. Ludy said the four get increases as the other 30 did for, "otherwise there would be discrimination."

Bruce conceded his recommendation had been "tough."

In other matters the board:

1. Unanimously approved a contract for the remaining fiscal year whereby Ross General Hospital will handle temporary observation commitments of suspected mental cases on court petitions. This falls with current budget funds and no extra money is necessary.

2. Appointed Thomas Tawns to a vacancy on the board of the Stinson Beach Fire Protection District, on motion of Supervisor Peter H. Behr.

3. Allowed eight planning staff employees to attend a conference Friday and Saturday in Santa Rosa, at a cost of $46.

4. Appointed Wade R. Powell deputy sheriff at $440 a month and Paul A. Brusseou deputy sealer of weights and measures at $420.

5. Changed the name of Marin County Hospital and Farm to Marin County Nursing Hospital and Farm to comply with a 1961 legislative act which prohibits use of the term "hospital" in the name of a public or private sanitarium or nursing home unless it is preceded by a modifying terms such as "nursing."

6. Agreed to ask the new Marin Visitors' Bureau for a presentation of its plans for county-wide publicity and its financial support. Behr said he was "very much excited" by the idea of a newly organized bureau.

7. Endorsed a drive of the Marin Council of the Boy Scouts of America to raise $314,628 for improvements at Camp Tamarancho and Camp Marin-Sierra. Alan Bruce, county administrator, and Leslie Wider, county building maintenance superintendent, will head the campaign among county employees.

8. Authorized the auditor-controller to invest $73,000 reserve funds in time deposits, bringing the total county reserve funds invested to $115,000. The new deposit will earn the new higher interest rate of 3½ per cent a year, Michael Mitchell, assistant auditor, said.

9. Authorized amendment of contract with United Ambulance Co. to provide for transporation of mental cases under court order to Ross General Hospital.

10. Set for Feb. 27 hearing on county ordinance adopting state Division of Housing, regulations on auto courts, resorts and motels.

11. Told the public works department to negotiate for right of way to realign Auburn, Simms and Jacoby Streets south of San Rafael in anticipation of state completion of the Auburn Street railway overcrossing.

12. Learned the Unitarian Church contract for civic center fill at 50 cents a cubic yard has been defaulted, and authorized contractor Clinton Harliss to obtain 18,000 yards at 45 cents to complete fairgrounds fill.

Ross Valley Teacher Unit Asks Pay Hikes

A 3 per cent raise in teacher salaries was asked of the San Anselmo School District trustees last night by the Ross Valley Teachers' Assn.

The request, made through association chairman Rosalie Johnson, first grade teacher at Sleepy Hollow School, will be studied by the board. A decision on a new salary schedule will probably be made by the March 20 meeting, Supt. Stephen Parodi said.

Following a study of district schools by the San Anselmo Fire Department, the board was urged to install solid core doors and steel frame transoms at Isabel Cook School and to increase the number of fire extinguishers at Isabel Cook, Wade Thomas and Brookside Schools.

A fire alarm system at Wade Thomas was also recommended. The board will ask approval of the recommendations by the State Department of Education before taking action on the proposals.

It was agreed that the summer school principal, yet to be chosen, would be paid $800 for the session. One application from within the district has been made for the job, Parodi said.

The board agreed to assist the Boy Scouts in publicizing their building collection program but vetoed a proposal that collection boxes be placed in the schools.

Parodi told the board that the suit against the Sunny Hills Presbyterian Orphanage for acquisition of 13 acres of land was still pending with no trial date set. The board agreed to add to the complaint a demand for an access road to the property.

School-Bonds Decision Based On Bright Classroom Future

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Governor Edmund G. Brown's decision to ask the legislature and the voters for only 200 million dollars in state school building aid bonds this year—much less than expected—is based on the brightest outlook for classrooms in years.

Hale Champion, state director of finance, said there are four factors which have reduced the demand for state loans to aid school districts. In addition, the simple arithmetic of how much money is available now makes the lower amount of bonds feasible.

The State Department of Education and the California Teachers Assn. have asked for a conference with the governor to discuss the possibility of increasing the size of the bond issue. Both Brown and Champion have expressed a willingness to talk the matter over with the CTA and Dr. Roy E. Simpson, state superintendent of construction.

"But our recommendation on the size of the bond issue was based on the figures received from my staff," Champion said. "We will be glad to talk this over with Mr. Simpson and the CTA, to let them state their case, but we have our case too."

The good news on the classroom front—which has resulted in a reduction of a demand for school building aid loans from an average of 12 million dollars a month to just over 10 million dollars a month—comes from several sources:

1. Due to the increased assessment levels by counties, school districts are collecting more tax money and have more to pay for schools. As a result, the amount which school districts contribute to their building needs has increased from below 25 per cent to in excess of 30 per cent.

2. Enrollment increases in public schools have kept pace with estimates but the enrollment increases have centered more in the districts which do not receive state aid than was expected. This has resulted in less demand for classrooms in the poorer districts which must have state aid for construction.

3. The anti-recession, 30-million-dollar appropriation for classroom construction voted early in 1961 cleaned up the backlog of applications for state aid. Once the backlog was removed, the demand fell below the 12-million-dollar maximum per month.

4. The increase in school enrollments will hit a peak in 1962-63 and then will begin to tail off. The reason for this is that the first post-war booms in enrollment now are reaching the top high school grades. Thus, even though large classes of kindergartens will be enrolling, the number of students being graduated out of the schools is becoming larger.

The present year's enrollment is 3,634,458 from kindergarten through junior college. The enrollment in 1962-63 will be 3,929,100, an increase of 294,642 students, or 8.1 per cent. But the increase in 1963-64 will be only 206,700, or 5.2 per cent. The increase in 1964-65 will be 180,200, or 4.3 per cent and the growth in 1965-66 is estimated at 179,500, or 4.1 per cent.

Much of the credit for the higher assessments of the counties goes to a bill authored several years ago by Assemblyman John L. E. Collier (R-Los Angeles). The measure provides that, if counties assess property for tax purposes below the statewide average, they are penalized in the amount of school support money they receive from the state. Institution of this penalty on apportionments removed any incentives for counties to under-assess property.

As for the actual financial picture of the school building aid bonds, the state allocation board, which grants the loans to school districts, explains it this way.

There is 55 million dollars in bond funds which accumulated during months when the loan approvals did not reach the authorized 12 million dollars level. There will be $12 million available for the first 8 months of 1962, through August, and 7 million dollars left for September.

This amounts to 55 million dollars and 103 million dollars available at the regular rate, or 158 million dollars. If the 200-million-dollar bond issue is approved by the legislature and by the voters in June, this would mean a total of 358 million dollars to run for a 30-month period.

If the demand held at the maximum of 12 million dollars a month—which it's not expected to do—this still would just about handle the demand for the 30 months until a bond issue could be approved in June, 1964.

Brown Says He Doesn't Want $4,100 Raise

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown said he doesn't feel his present salary of $40,000 a year is too much money for the job but he thinks it's enough and will not accept a $4,100-a-year raise included for him in his budget.

"This is something that was not brought to my attention by the department of finance, and only the alert press called that to my attention," Brown said. "I have no intention of taking any salary increase that I have not publicly asked the people for, and therefore, in the event I am reelected I will give back during the next four years whatever salary increase there is over $40,000."

The governor's salary was set at $40,000 to be effective when Brown took office in January, 1959. A bill that was approved in 1957 contained a little-noted feature that, in the future, any pay raises voted for state employees would carry through to the governor and other elected constitutional officers.

However, another section prohibits an elected official from receiving a pay raise during a term of office. Thus Brown's raise as well as the other had to wait until the term ends. As a result, the budget provides two 5 per cent raises for them.

Brown said he realized it would be a simple matter merely to remove the proposed raise from the budget. However, he said this would bind a future governor, if he were not re-elected and "I would rather let the next governor makeup his mind on it."

As for the lieutenant governor, state controller, secretary of state and treasurer who also would receive pay raises under the budget, Brown said this would be up to them.

BUDGET TRUCE

State Legislature Takes A Recess

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A strictly temporary truce prevailed at the Capitol today on a state budget battle which is turning into a key campaign issue.

The legislature, in session just two days, recessed yesterday until March 7.

The month-long layoff will give budget committees a chance to look over Gov. Edmund G. Brown's request for 2.9 billion dollars to operate the state government during 1962-63.

Actually, the budget will undergo two separate studies.

The Assembly Republican caucus plans to establish what it calls a budget task force to review the spending program of the Democratic administration.

The Assembly Ways and Means Committee, 15-7 Democratic, will begin subcommittee hearings a week from today. Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles) said he expects "significant" cuts.

Democrats predominate in the lower house, 44-34, two vacancies. But the Republicans are well aware that the budget bill, requiring 54 votes, can not get through without the ayes of 10 GOP members.

Governor Brown will use the interim to do a little campaigning for re-election. He has scheduled talks in Chico, Eureka and Redding next week, just ahead of a Northern California foray by Richard M. Nixon, a Republican candidate for his job.

Unruh caused a flurry in the Assembly yesterday with his proposal to place two leading Republican critics of the administration on the Ways and Means Committee.

The Assembly agreed, 62-9, to increase the committee membership from 22 to 24, but Minority Leader Joseph C. Shell (R-San Francisco) turned down the appointments.

Unruh told the two in effect: you've been attacking the governor's budget; get on the committee and come up with some suggestions for cutting it.

Shell noted that he was a committee member for six years before he was "bounced off" by Unruh, then Ways and Means chairman. The Los Angeles Republican said:

"Democrats traditionally, when they are in serious trouble, cry for a coalition form of government, either at the top or at the committee level."

Shell said he was thoroughly familiar with Brown's fiscal policies, adding, "I deplore them as wasteful and socialistic."

The Republican caucus suggested that Unruh name two Republicans who expect to be back in the legislature next year. Shell is a candidate for governor, and Busterud does not plan to seek re-election.

Assemblyman Richard T. Hanna (D-Garden Grove) likened the Shell-Busterud refusal to serve on the committee to a game of cowboys and Indians. He said the Republicans want to play but they want to shoot off their arrows from the bushes.

Garrulous Garrigus Looks To Be Laureate

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A jovial poet-legislator-schoolteacher, whose works have never been published, today opened a campaign for the completely unpaid job of state poet laureate.

Assemblyman Charles B. Garrigus (D-Reedley) says he wants the office because "I simply believe that I can do more with it to advance the public's appreciation of poetry than anyone else in California."

He predicted opposition from "the garden club set, the university sophisticates, the avant gardists, the beatniks and all others who have done so much damage by promoting the 'cult of the special soul' attitude about poetry."

The portly instructor in philosophy, American history and literature at Fresno County's Reedley College said none of his works had been published, "chiefly because poetic editorial levels are largely in the hands of modernists while I am a pure romanticist. . . ."

If elected by resolution of the Senate and Assembly, he promised to use the office to educate young people to appreciate poetry.

Garrigus was nominated by Assemblyman Carley Porter (D-Compton), who has often applauded the way Garrigus has enlivened dull legislative sessions by reading his satiric poems.

Sen. Hugh Burns (D-Fresno), president pro-tem of the upper house, agreed it was a good idea.

Mosk Rules On New Absentee Vote Law

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — A new 1961 law requiring absentee ballots to be in the hands of the county clerk three days before an election actually will have the effect of requiring them four days before the election in many cases.

This was the ruling of Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk.

"Absentee ballots must be received by an elections clerk three days before an election and no extension of time can be permitted," Mosk said, even if the third day before the election is a Saturday.

As most elections are held on Tuesdays, the third day before an election would be a Saturday.

"Absentee ballots for a Tuesday election must therefore be received by the clerk not later than the Saturday before the Tuesday election," the opinion said. "If the clerk's office is not open for business on Saturday, the ballots should be mailed so as to be received not later than the Friday preceding the election."

If a clerk's office is kept open on a Saturday, for either a full day's or half-day's operation, the clerk is advised by Mosk's opinion to give explicit notice of the last possible time for official receipt of the absentee ballot.

The new law, a subject of considerable controversy in the 1961 session, replaces the old requirement that absentee ballots be returned to the clerk six days after the election.

MARIN'S FIRST SIX-MAN JURY

This abbreviated jury of six will decide today whether George William MacKinnon, 35, of Fairfax drove while intoxicated along Bolinas Road last Oct. 23. Prosecutor Hadden W. Roth and defense lawyer Harold R. Hayes agreed to try the case before Judge Harold J. Haley with half the usual number of jurors. They hope this will save both court time and cost to taxpayers. Pictured in the jury box are Will Wilson, Marin City; Mrs. May B. Hughes, Novato; Mrs. Helen Wingerd, San Rafael; Mrs. Alice L. Reeve, Ross; Mrs. Elizabeth Y. Donaldson, Fairfax, and Erik Rettig, Belvedere. (Independent-Journal photo)

Board Takes Look At School Site Dispute

Echoes of conflict between the Marin County Housing Authority and Tamalpais Union High School District Board reached county supervisors yesterday with confusing effect. Net result was to postpone consideration of a supposedly hurry-up application for adjustment until Feb. 13.

Erwin Farley, authority deputy director, had asked fast action by the county planning commission at its Monday meeting, with immediate referral to the supervisors yesterday.

The planners unanimously approved the authority's application to convert part of the Marin City high school site to temporary commercial use, on condition that authority and school board agree this was all right.

However, Farley reported yesterday, he was not allowed to speak at a meeting of the Tamalpais High School District board Monday night.

Supervisor Peter Behr said the school board planned to meet with authority representatives Feb. 12 "in an attempt to resolve this."

"Anything we did now would be stillborn."

Witter Bows Out Of Running

Councilman John Witter of Ross announced today he will not be a candidate for re-election April 10.

Witter, elected councilman in 1958, recently left the hospital after an operation.

Councilman Frederick S. Allen's term also expires in April. He filed papers yesterday to run for re-election. Allen was appointed to the Council in Oct. 1960 to fill the unexpired term of James McNab who resigned.

Sausalito Council Seems In Accord With Raises For City Employees

Salary increases were recommended to the Sausalito City Council last night for deputy tax collector Hazel Pierachini, deputy city clerk Wilma Young, and secretary-stenographer Charleine Strittmatter, effective retroactively to Feb. 1.

The council appeared to be in accord with the increases suggested by City Manager Charles A. Brown, but put the matter over to Feb. 20. Mrs. Pierachini's and Mrs. Strittmatter's salaries would be raised from $410 to $430 per month while Mrs. Young's would be raised from $392 to $410.

Mrs. Pierachini and Mrs. Young lost a wage dispute last July before the Sausalito Board of Review after they had fought five years appealing a pay reduction they received when switched from a monthly to an hourly basis. Mrs. Young has been put on full time since Feb. 1. Mrs. Pierachini remains on part time, working 35 hours a week.

The council accepted the low bid of Lee Mac Paving Co. of Corte Madera of $2,363 for paving portions of Booker and San Carlos avenues, over protests of Frank V. Pistolesi and Mrs. Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford), who said they were dissatisfied with previous work by the firm.

Rejected were three bids for improvements to Spring Street, all in the $5,000 range, with the engineer's estimate $1,500. Also rejected were five bids for improvements on Marion Avenue, the lowest being $3,810 and engineer's estimate $2,100.

Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. asked and got council approval of proclamation of "National Salon Week," Feb. 11-17, to honor hair dressers and cosmetologists. Ehrlich said he had been "burned once" on signing a proclamation — referring to his recent signature on an "Anti-Communist Week" proclamation used as publicity for a "school of anti-Communism" in Oakland.

Councilmen Marjorie Brady and Michael Harris were absent.

The council also:

1. Set for Feb. 20 hearing on the proposed food handlers' ordinance.
2. Agreed to ask the Trident to cut the brightness of its new yellow lighted sign after protests from citizens that it was causing walls in the neighborhood to turn yellow.
3. Put over to Feb. 20 a request by A. G. Schoonmaker that the city extend its culvert to handle storm water from the Spring Street area if he fills his property on Mono Street.
4. Voted 3-0 to order the railroad barge on Valley Street moved by Friday.
5. Tabled a request from Albert Lovett Corp. for a use permit for a 10-berth floating dock.
6. Heard that the following on-sale alcoholic beverage licenses have been transferred; one to Sausalito Cruising Club Inc.; one to Fred Tyrol for a pizza parlor at 629 Bridgeway, and one to Hans Anderson and Jerry D. Miller for Gas Works No. 2 at 2 Gate Five Road.
7. Councilman George E. Keeney complimented City Manager Brown for having a telephone booth placed at Highway 101 and Spencer Avenue, saying it was used last night for a wreck on Waldo. "It is very important that people know about the booth," Keeney said.
8. Set up a committee to meet with John J. Gallas of 203 Third Street, who has complained that there are numerous violations of use permit authorizations on the Albert-Lovett Corp. apartment project on South Street.
9. Heard from Brown that an expert is to come in two days to conduct a survey of the police department as a follow up to demands by residents for better police protection.

Chairmen Named For Sierra Club

Four acting chairmen have been named to the Marin area group, San Francisco Bay Chapter of the Sierra Club, Marin area coordinator Prentiss Goldstone said today.

The four, named after an organizational meeting held last Friday, are Fred Gunsky of Mill Valley, in charge of Mill Valley on the conservative committee; Norma Walters, San Rafael, hiking and knapsacking committee; Cheryl Douglas, Mill Valley, teen-age activities committee, with Mrs. H. H. Kinkade of San Anselmo as counselor.

Monthly and special meetings are to be held, Goldstone added, to permit members to become better acquainted and to enable members to arrange hikes and other activities.

Enlists In Navy

Anthony Bruce King, 17, son of Thelma Elizabeth Euer, 16 Blithedale Terrace, Mill Valley, has enlisted in the Navy at the Marin County Navy Recruiting Station, San Rafael. He is taking recruit training at San Diego.

Motorist Hurt; Hit Parked Car

A Ross motorist passing through Kentfield was slightly hurt last night when his vehicle collided with a parked car.

Jesse Curtis Voiles of 40 Woodside Way, a salesman, told the California Highway Patrol that a passing car with its headlights on high beam crowded him far over to the north side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard east of Elm Avenue at 10:20 p.m.

His car rammed one which had just been parked by Leo Edward Christiansen of 79 Harrison Avenue, Sausalito. Voiles' mouth was injured but he declined hospitalization.

Jordan Named City Attorney In Sausalito

Leland H. Jordan, San Rafael attorney with the firm of Bagshaw, Schaal, Martinelli, Weissich and Jordan, was named city attorney of Sausalito by the city council last night.

Jordan, who is also Mill Valley city attorney, succeeds John B. Ehlen of Sausalito, who retired Jan. 31 after 14 years in the post.

Councilman Howard Sievers, heading the committee to select an attorney, said "every attorney in Marin was considered and Jordan was selected in view of unanimous city council consent." No salary has been set.

Jordan, who was county counsel from 1957 to November, 1960, resides in San Rafael.

"My chief objective will be to live up to the high standards of what Mr. Ehlen has established before me," Jordan said.

Jordan's first act as city attorney, was to give regulations concerning Russell S. Reagan's notice of intention to circulate petitions for recall of Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. and Councilman Michael Harris.

He said Reagan may start circulating petitions Saturday, that names must be secured within 60 days from Jan. 18 (the date Reagan filed notice of intention), and Reagan must have 25 per cent of the registered voters sign as of the date petition is filed with city clerk. He added that the recall issue must be subject of a special election since it is too late to get on the April 10 municipal election ballot.

Damage In Storm

PARIS (UPI)—Officers of the new French passenger flagship France radioed today the liner had suffered minor damage in a mid-Atlantic storm shortly before midnight Monday.

The France, on her maiden voyage, is scheduled to arrive in New York tomorrow.

Biology Teachers Meeting At Drake

"The Teaching of Modern Biological Science through Instrumentation" will be the topic of discussion for the Marin Assn. of Biology Teachers meeting, Feb. 15 at 7:30 p.m. at Sir Francis Drake School in Room 419.

Norman Goldstein, physiology teacher at Sir Francis Drake High School, and Dr. James Callas, research assistant to Goldstein in a National Science Foundation project, will also speak.

Council Leads Dog's Life In The City Of Sausalito

"A dog is another person in the house," Councilman George E. Keeney told fellow Sausalito city councilmen last night.

Keeney, reporting as committee head studying a proposed ordinance amendment requiring that dogs be leashed on downtown Bridgeway, said he is studying many city ordinances and getting many opinions.

"How does a dog know if he is on Bulkley or Bridgeway?" he asked.

Frank V. Pistolesi, in the audience, said, "I agree that a dog is a member of the family."

A. G. (Babe) Malone arose and said: "I love dogs as well as anybody else, but something must be done. I've been here 15 years fighting this thing."

"Keeney has been here 16 years," said Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr.

Coroner Policy Not Due Until '63

Coroner Frank J. Keaton may continue to give business to his own undertaking firm in San Rafael during his present term of office which runs to the end of this year, county supervisors decided yesterday.

The point came up when the board adopted an ordinance setting a salary for the combined office of coroner-public administrator in lieu of fees, and requiring that fees be deposited in the county treasury from next Jan. 1.

By terms of the ordinance, the salary was established for four years ahead. The four amounts involved being $8,820, $9,240, $9,684 and $10,152 annually.

Supervisor Peter Behr did not care for County Counsel E. Warren McGuire's initial wording which found that it was "incompatible" with the board's ideas for the coroner to give business to his own firm. He suggested that the resolution express established policy that "anyone elected to the office could not handle any cases in any mortuary in which he had direct or indirect public interest."

The question was raised as to whether such policy might be considered in effect forthwith, thereby applying to Keaton during his current term.

Supervisor George Ludy said, "I don't think it should be in effect yet." William Gnoss agreed that "this should be for 1963." Behr readily concurred.

So McGuire revised the draft to make the policy effective Jan. 1, 1963. The board approved 4-0 with Supervisor Walter R. Castro once more abstaining due to his former interest in Harry M. Williams Mortuary.

Dan Kimball Goes To Work For Brown

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Industrialist Dan Kimball, named chairman of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's campaign committee yesterday, says he aims to have every doorbell in California rung seeking votes for the Democratic governor's re-election.

"Pat Brown has been one of the strongest and most effective governors California has ever had," said Kimball, president of Aerojet General Corp. and a former secretary of the Navy under President Harry S. Truman.

"I expect the organization to register the greatest number of voters and mobilize the greatest number of volunteers in the history of the Democratic Party in California."

Kimball is also a vice-president of General Tire and Rubber Co. and a director of Continental Airlines, Inc.

Epidemic Of Measles Is Rapidly Diminishing

The mild measles epidemic which threatened Sausalito's Central School appeared to be rapidly diminishing yesterday while the number of absences due to chicken pox sharply increased.

District nurse Helen Elrod said that of the 86 pupils absent from classes yesterday, the number of cases of measles and chicken pox seemed to be evenly divided.

Not all the absences were due to measles or chicken pox, however, Miss Elrod said.

This week the Marin County Health Department reported 25 cases of measles in Sausalito as compared to 51 cases the week previous. The number of cases of measles throughout the county dropped from 114 to 64 cases during this same period.

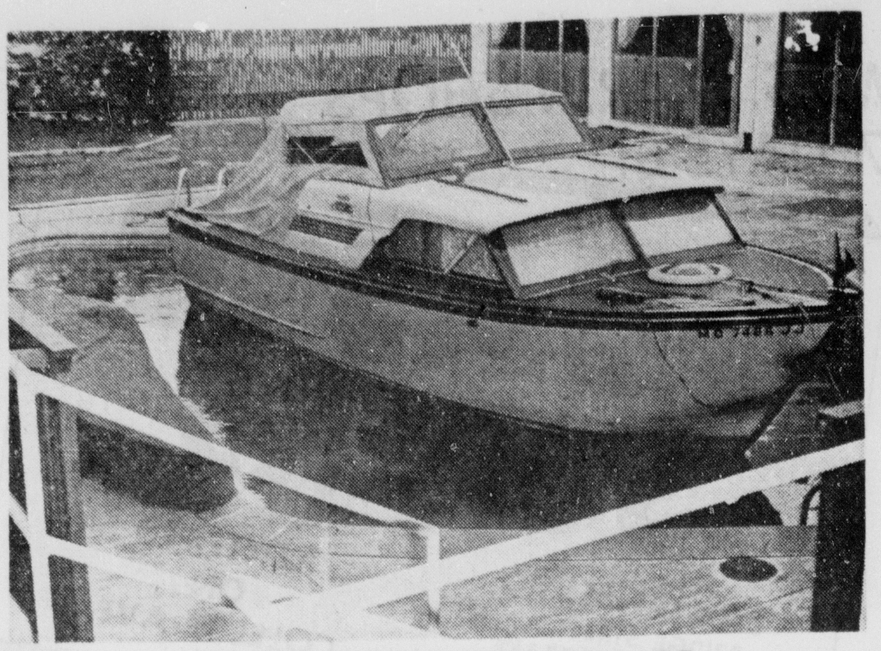
No official figures were available for the number of cases of chicken pox throughout the county since mandatory reporting of the illness to the health department was discontinued in 1955, according to Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, Marin County health officer.

Dr. Albrecht also reported 30 cases of strep infections throughout the county during the past week, two cases of infectious hepatitis, one case of mumps and one of tuberculosis, both of the latter cases occuring in San Rafael.

Contact Magazine Is Changing Format

Contact magazine will change with its May issue from a quarterly published in "digest" size to a monthly in a new 8x11-inch format, publisher William H. Ryan announced in Sausalito today.

Nicolas Sidjakov, prize-winning San Francisco designer, will serve as art director for the expanded and speeded-up publication, Ryan said.



READY FOR SHORT VOYAGE

Moored in the heated swimming pool of the Bel Aire Motel in the heart of St. Louis, this 25-foot cabin cruiser looks like the result of poor navigation. The owner of the motel borrowed the craft for a Christmas decoration and decided to leave it in the pool until swimming season. But until then, guests can charter it for cocktail parties, reaching the boat via a gangplank. (UPI Photo)

Ski Program Tonight For Dimes March

Bay Area Ski Assn. beauty queen Evelyn Demattei will preside during Ski Night festivities at 7:30 p.m. tonight at the San Rafael High School Auditorium for the benefit of the March of Dimes.

The fund raising event will open with the official films of the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley photographed in technicolor by Marvin Becker of Sausalito. Warren Miller's colorful film "Have Skis, Will Travel" will also be presented.

Disc jockey Jim Lange will act as master of ceremonies for the program which will include Jerry Weirick, noted racing skier and competitive jumper.

One of the highlights of the event will be an auction of ski equipment donated by various manufacturers.

All proceeds will be donated to the drive against polio, arthritis and birth defects, according to Wesley Stoft, College of Marin student who is chairman of the event. Admission charges are $2 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12 years.

Production Down For State Timber

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California timber production in 1960 declined considerably from the previous year, the State Department of Conservation recently announced.

Timber production from state forests during 1960 totaled 5.14 billion board feet. The department blamed the economic recession for the decline.

Production figures for 1961 will not be available until late in 1962. A substantial part of the 1960 production came from timber salvaged from burned areas.

30 Highway Project Bids Are Advertised

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The State Division of Highways advertised for bids on 30 highway projects with an estimated total value of 25.1 million dollars during December.

There were 30 contracts, totaling 9.4 million dollars awarded during the month.

53-Minute 'Pause For Peace' Planned By Iowa Community

IOWA CITY (AP) — A group of University of Iowa students and professors — and some Iowa City townspeople— plan to halt their daily occupations today in a 53-minute "Pause for Peace."

The peace pause was scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. (CST) — just two and one-half hours after the university begins its spring semester classes.

After it's all over, a telegram signed by nearly 1,000 persons will be sent to President John F. Kennedy.

Sponsors of the movement say that nobody knows whether it will be a success or not, but it has been a chief topic of conversation in this town of 30,000 for the past several days.

There's symbbolism in the 53-minute duration of the pause— one minute for each billion dollars in the nation's new defense budget.

The "Pause for Peace" has the backing of several university faculty members and large numbers of students. Mayor Dorr Hudson of Iowa City issued a proclamation endorsing endorsing it.

Mrs. Joseph Rosenfield of Des Moines, a member of the State Board of Regents, the university's governing body, praised it as a worthwhile effort to direct the thoughts of the community to peace. U.S. University President Virgil M. Hancher said the school has neither officially endorsed nor opposed the movement.

The telegram to Kennedy read: "We wish to enforce your State of the Union commitment to make a supreme effort to break the logjam on disarmament and nuclear tests and pledge our full support to bold and imaginative initiative toward that end."

Officers Elected At Ross School

Tom Sather, president, and other new student officers of Ross School, will take office Friday for the spring semester.

Sather won out over Peter Bricca. Others elected were Mike Roberts, vice president, defeating Judy Thomas, Jane Lindner and Ann Younger; and Kate Rothrock, secretary-treasurer, who defeated Jo Anne Parents.

School officials follow a policy of not announcing tabulation of votes.

200 Teen-Agers Get Cookies, Milk Mozart At White House Party

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy invited about 200 guests to the White House today to hear a Mozart opera and eat cookies and milk.

The invitation went to teenagers from Washington's diplomatic corps.

They were to hear Mozart's comic opera Cosi Fan Tutti performed by the Metropolitan Opera studio in the old east room on a red-carpeted stage.

The performers will be in costume, but they will have no orchestra. A piano will provide the accompaniment.

Mozart will be following hard on the heels of Shakespeare, cellist Pablo Casals and composer Igor Stravinsky. Stravinsky was the last noted man of arts at the white house, when he was given a small private dinner last month in honor of his birthday.

Casals gave a concert and Shakespeare was performed after state dinners.

After the performance the youngsters were to go to the state dining room for ice cream, cookies, fruit punch and milk.

It will be the second of Mrs. Kennedy's series of musical programs for the young. The first was a concert performed by the Transylvania symphony orchestra of Brevard, N. C., last Aug. 22 on the White House lawn.

Undersheriff Meyer Is Grandfather Again

Undersheriff Eugene Meyer is a grandfather for the third time.

His daughter, Mrs. Aubrey Olsen of Tamalpais Valley gave birth to an eight pound, four ounce baby girl at Marin General Hospital Monday morning. The baby's name is Rhonda Lynn. Both mother and daughter were reported doing well.

Information On Fair Available

Seattle World's Fair information is available at the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, manager George Krusz said today.

The fair will run from April 21 to Oct. 21.

Requests for lodging are being handled by a special bureau which maintains listings of available space. The chamber has information on a wide variety of special entertainment scheduled during the fair, Krusz said.

Information on other attractions during the fair may be obtained from the State Dept. of Commerce and Economic Development, tourist promotion division, Olympia, Wash.

Can A Coal Miner's Daughter Find Happiness With Rich Hotel Man?

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bobo Rockefeller, the coal miner's daughter, today revealed amid a champaign celebration that she is getting married a third time.

The groom-to-be, Charles Mapes Jr., 41-year-old Reno hotel and casino owner, will be Bobo's third husband from a prominent family. He flew to New York yesterday to arrange the still secret details for the wedding.

Mapes, wealthy member of a pioneer Nevada family, went nightclubbing into the early hours today with blonde, 44-year-old Bobo, onetime Cinderella bride of millionaire Winthrop Rockefeller.

Bobo met Mapes in 1954 when she went to Reno to divorce Winthrop, brother of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, and receive a 5.5-million-dollar settlement.

At El Morocco Night Club here, Bobo revealed that she and Mapes, who has never been married, "were engaged, sort of, in 1954." She said there was a waiting period of almost eight years because she wanted time "to think about it."

"I hope we don't spend that much time arranging our marriage," she laughed.

But she was mum about when and where the ceremony would take place.

"It will be real private," she said. "Don't you think I've had enough fiascos in my life?"

Another headline divorce in the Rockefeller family — Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller's from the New York governor — kept coming up in the conversation. The governor's wife now is in Reno, waiting out the six-week residence period for a divorce.

Peace 'Lobby' Descends On Governor

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown and the leaders of a "Women for Peace" march held a spirited discussion of civil defense and disarmament policies in the governor's office yesterday.

About 200 women crowded into the governor's conference room. They had refused to talk to a secretary and demanded to see the governor.

Brown was applauded when he told the women they had every right to see him and their legislators.

But murmurs of disapproval followed when he spoke of state civil defense plans and said the national government must take the lead in negotiations for peace.

"We want you to take the lead," one woman said.

The women said they wanted an end to planning for war and preliminary studies launched to prepare for shifting the economy from war preparations to peaceful pursuits.

One woman said 35 per cent of California's economy depends on war industries.

Brown replied that explorations of space are not related to war, but to science.

The women murmured their disapproval when he said, "We are in a war with the Russians in these fields."

Mrs. Pearl Mindell of San Francisco told the governor that such cities at Benicia, San Diego and Los Angeles depend heavily on defense industries.

"We're going to change the war plant at Benicia to a park," Brown said.

Newest Sausalito Rail Ruling Aids Factory Hunt

Heartening to Southern Marin is denial by an Interstate Commerce Commission subcommittee of the Northwestern Pacific's effort to abandon freight service on its branch line into Sausalito. The subcommittee reversed an earlier recommendation of an ICC examiner that the railroad be allowed to discontinue such service.

Abandonment would not be consistent with public interest, the subcommittee declared. Such has been the contention of Sausalito industries, who have consistently opposed rail service abandonment.

The railroad has 30 days in which to appeal the decision. It contends that it has suffered operational loss by diminishing rail shipments to and from Sausalito; also that it will cost half a million dollars to repair "a dangerous condition" in the Corte Madera grade tunnel.

With Marin County in the midst of determined efforts to bring new industries, and with Sausalito a prime area in any industrial growth, it would appear that the Northwestern Pacific really stands to gain freight traffic through industrial growth. Many industries that might locate here would look askance at the trend to shunt all freight traffic to trucks and boats.

This new decision seems to augur well for San Rafael's efforts to prevent abandonment of that portion of the Northwestern Pacific system which includes reconstruction of the collapsed Puerto Suello tunnel. Without this connection, the line from Sausalito would lead nowhere but to San Rafael. With this latter trackage continued, there would be main-line connection.

A Path To Useful Maturity

A wholesome program toward developing teenagers toward moral, spiritual and physical maturity is available to Marin County youth through the Y of Marin. Its staff of two professional and eight part-time workers, plus the devoted efforts of over 100 dedicated volunteers is carrying out a leadership program that new is enjoyed by 600 teenage boys and girls, engaged in activities and projects of 53 clubs.

The program seeks to inculcate various forms of personal achievement, toward a more abundant and useful adult life for our future leaders in public, business and cultural life.

The annual membership campaign of Marin YMCA is now in progress. It deserves support, and will bring a rich reward through a better future generation.

BOYS GET HELPFUL PUNISHMENT

Four boys who caused more than $1,000 worth of damage in a Tennessee school were given a short court sentence that they will not soon forget.

The judge had the youthful vandals dig up the stump of a tree they had cut down; plant several other trees; work to pay back their parents, who reimbursed school authorities for the damage; and be home by 11 o'clock every night unless out with their parents.

"This court does not treat lightly youngsters who make pleasure and frolic out of defacing, destroying or mutilating property," the judge said.

Few young people are deliberately destructive. But at times they become the victims of carelessness, lack of proper supervision or failure to find constructive outlets for their boundless energy.

God has endowed each boy and girl with the capacity for greatness. Help them discover and direct that power into constructive channels and there will be little need to restrain, much less stifle it.

"Instruct your son, and he shall refresh you, and shall give delight to your soul." (Proverbs 29:17)

Inspire young people to be daring in the right way, O Lord.

Those Office 'Pals' Really Do Rush Patient From Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the great rituals of office life is visiting "the one who is ill."

In a large business firm there is always someone comin down with ulcers, a strange virus, or just plain gravel in his gizzard.

One by one—or sometimes in glad groups — others of the office herd wind slowly o'er the lea to their stricken fellow worker's pallet of pain, bringing a nosegay of wilted daffodils and advice free.

If you have ever had to temporarily trade your swivel chair for a hospital bed, here are some visitors from your office you are probably familiar with:

HUNGRY HUBERT — He arrives just as they bring your evening meal. "I wouldn't overload my stomach at a time like this," he says. Hubert lets you have the soup and crackers. Then he eats your bread and butter, roast beef and potatoes, and dessert.

TAKE-CHARGE TILLIE — The personnel secretary is a frustrated Florence Nightingale. She stuffs three pillows under you to make you uncomfortable, bawls out the entire hospital staff for neglecting you. As soon as she departs an angry nurse makes you unveil and harpops you with a needle.

OPPORTUNISTIC OSCAR —"How about a little gin rummy?" he demands, pulling out a deck of cards and shuffling them on your stomach. He feels sure that in your weakened condition he can win back the $3.17 you won last week.

COATED-TONGUE CHARLIE—the office hypochondriac inquires about your symptoms in detail, asks to see your incision. The next morning, early, he is wheeled into the next room as an emergency case.

PRACTICAL PAMELA—The pretty stenographer told the boss she'd need three hours off to visit you. She sticks her head in the door, says "Hi!" brightly, and spends the remaining time in shopping.

HIS OMNIPOTENCE—The boss comes in swinging a golf club. "Take all the time you need—and don't worry," he burbles. "I've got one of the younger executive trainees filling in for you, and he's doing a real bang-up job."

That does it. Pale and wan, you show up at work the next day.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Even In Mexico They Read Our I-J

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

It gives me great pleasure to write that Americans, relaxing in the lobby of the motel where I am staying, ask for copies of the Independent-Journal that I have finished reading.

This happens every day without fail; so impressed are they with its excellent format, editorials, and fine presentation in general that it is a joy to give them my copies.

Although I read El So del Norte, and the El Porvenir of Monterrey, reading the I-J down south of the border does something for me.

Mayor Ehrlich Explains Actions

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As mayor of Sausalito, and together with 54 other Bay Area mayors, I signed the Anti-Communist Week proclamation. Subsequently, on my motion, the Sausalito City Council voted unanimously to table this proclamation. Because of the great public interest generated by the proclamation of the mayors, I would like to explain the reasons for each of my actions.

I signed the proclamation because I believed it sound and constructive to publicly proclaim that communism is a serious threat to our free institutions and that an Anti-Communism Week, dedicated to the study of communism and also to the unique qualities and strengths of our democracy, would be beneficial. I have discussed this subject with many other mayors and they all agree that the proclamation does not, directly or indirectly, endorse Dr. Schwarz or his school.

A proclamation must not be used to express a mayor's personal opinions. It is issued in behalf of all the citizens and must express the predominant opinion of the community. There is no justification for proclaiming a community into controversy and dissension. Because the Anti-Communist Week proclamation developed great opposition in Sausalito (as well as very strong support), because many citizens understood it as an endorsement of Dr. Schwarz's school (partially due to inaccurate reporting by public media), and because it was used by Dr. Schwarz to create the impression of an endorsement (which was not its stated purpose nor my intention nor the desire of the citizens), the Sausalito City Council, on my motion, unanimously tabled the proclamation.

Sausalito's position is clear. We are anti-communist and anti-Birch. We do not want our city government officially endorsing Dr. Schwarz's school or any particular method of manifesting our anti-communist feelings.

I cannot help but observe, as our country struggles with this difficult problem, that we must guard against fanaticism, not only of the anti-communist, but of the anti-anti-communist as well.

Objects To Use Of Minors' Names

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Let's get the record straight once and for all regarding when a teen-ager's name should or should not be mentioned.

For years your paper has hidden the identity of youths under 18 years of age who have gone on rampages around the county beating and robbing innocent people.

The article that appeared in your paper on January 30, 1962 entitled "Two Teen Girls, Youths Run Off" was too much for me. What valid reason did you have for mentioning their names?

If this is the only kind of "news" you can publish then I suggest you rely a little more on the national news agencies.

HARRY A. BARBIER

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When a juvenile runs away and remains long enough to have it appear to be more than a brief, night-out-escapade, the Independent-Journal customarily runs the name, hoping it may help trace the missing person. A very large number of leads concerning runaways received by police come from someone reading in a newspaper that the person is missing. The Independent-Journal would be remiss if it did not give assistance in this manner toward discovery of runaways. This is not a new practice; it has been followed for many years.)

Democrat Left Must Calm Down If JFK Is To Realize Aims

WASHINGTON—The Democratic left-wingers are doing the administration—and the country—a disservice by tryiing to pressure President Kennedy to throw Congress into a reform-everything-now partisan wrangle.

Kennedy is not going to put partisanship entirely to one side, but his strong intent is to give priority to the imperatives of the cold war — defense, economic aid, and a liberalized trade policy.

To achieve these urgent and vital ends, the President needs to unite the country, not divide it. He must win the support of Southern Democrats and Republicans to get Congressional approval for what needs to be done.

IF KENNEDY were to embark upon a bitterly partisan, reform-everything-now role, he would be risking everything that is crucial.

Democratic liberals will do well to quit berating the president for not asking Congress to pass every controversial item he can think of. A president with any sense of perspective and reality must put first things first. That is what Mr. Kennedy is aiming to do.

Fortunately the do-it-now advocates are not likely to carry the day. There are two reasons:

1—PRESIDENT KENNEDY has no blank-check mandate from the voters. Half of the electorate wanted a more conservative president, and the Congress elected in 1960 was more conservative than Kennedy. The tendency to compare Kennedy's position with that of F.D.R. in 1933 is misleading.

In 1933 the nation was prostrate in depression and nearly every segment of the country was pleading for him to act. For Democratic liberals to expect Kennedy to act like F.D.R. is to be unaware of the needs and realities of 1962.

2—KENNEDY MUST ACT even more prudently and less partisanly than he did during his first year in office. Last year, much of what he did—conferring with allied leaders, meeting with Khrushchev, dealing with Berlin, Laos, Cuba, Vietnam — was entirely in the area of presidential initiative. He needed no Congressional approval.

This year the very core of his priority program requires Congressional approval. Without such approval there is little latitude for presidential initiative. The paramount need—and Kennedy's paramount objective—is to win Congressional authority for a liberalized, reciprocal trade relationship with the burgeoning European Common Market. This is crucial to every aspect of U. S. foreign policy; it is needed to resolve the problem of balance of payments.

ESTABLISHING constructive ties with the European Common Market, carrying forward economic help to underdevoped nations, strengthening the whole range of our military capabilities—on these matters the president is not free to act unless Congress is willing to act with him.

Kennedy is well aware that a large part of his newly-gained popularity rests upon the voter conviction that he is a middle-road Democratic President. Only by avoiding partisan extremes can he win from Congress what he deems crucial.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

Journalism, Crime, Wars And Texas Haircuts Pass In Review

AT AN EARLY AGE I disclosed such precocious symptoms of sloth, inertia, inability to earn and unwillingness to try, that my beloved Dad came to the justified conclusion I had a dim and hungry future.

So he watched me closely, which wasn't hard to do. This research disclosed that most of my time away from the family nest in Bozeman, Mont., was being spent at the Carnegie Free Library.

Accordingly he decided that I was maybe cut out to become a librarian.

This might in time have been a mortal blow to the whole librarian racket, for sure enough, our town librarian presently decided to award me a princely 25 cents per hour to tend the store when she wished to be elsewhere.

Mostly, though, she stayed on the job except on nights when there was a mountain blizzard blowing. I finally decided newspaper work might be steadier.

A LOT OF NEWSMEN have lately been wondering what ailed our heads in such moments of decision. For we blundered into America's only big industry where the big operations steadily grow fewer, in the face of a population explosion. Jobs of course grow fewer too, aside from the point that newspapermen are apt to wander off into being press agents, authors, Skid Row rogues, and such.

Certainly those of us who are still hunting for news rather than jobs, and eating all right, guiltily feel we're cashing in on luck largely.

For myself I may say that from the day I started with the City News Bureau of Chicago, covering police of course, I wasn't up to the job. What's more, papers are being shot from under more deserving men every week.

Therefore I have craftily kept an eye out for soft assignments, such as the Marin County Board of Supervisors, and for solvent employers such as the I-J. (Read what we say in the Wall Street Journal —more I-J advertising than the New York Herald-Tribune, more than New York's three evening papers combined.)

On the percentages this has paid off.

ONCE IN A WHILE I've blundered. I got into one bad spot where I was the boss and even had to meet the payroll. There are some very nice bosses on the I-J, and they can have that kind of work while I enjoy myself.

I fell into several wars, the Japan earthquake of 1923, the Communist takeover of China with help by Chiang Kai-shek and Uncle Sam . . . Even so, one of several U. S. presidents I've met said he would like to swap with me. I told him I was sorry I couldn't return the compliment.

Why anybody has ever hired me is among the mysteries. It was tough cracking the I-J and I just hung around, and foxed them by promising I'd be temporary. I still mean to be temporary. After all, the world almost ended.

Crime bores me, though all good newsmen are fascinated to death with it, so they say. And speaking of death, that happens to us all. Why get excited?

Personal extinction being inevitable, I'd just as soon hear no more about it. Murder seems in bad taste. Haytumbling is natural and should be private.

DON'T GET the idea I can't be impressed, even by slaughter if it's wholesale enough. About 4 p.m. of Aug. 14, 1937, some 850 people perished under an air-bomb half a mile north of my office. Half an hour later, 1,600 more lay in windrows at a big intersection half a mile west. I was impressed.

But crime news—well, I agree with Diogenes; it's news when you find an honest man.

Things touching my personal life closely interest me and I like to report on such things as a 50 per cent rise in the price of haircuts.

That just happened, had you heard? But don't look for an instant $3 rate in Marin County. I just mean that my Texas son-in-law Bill Dunn advises they're up in Blum, Hill County, from 50 to 75 cents.

Warmerdam, Other Coaches Defend Fiberglass Poles

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP) — The man who broke the 15-foot ceiling with a heavily taped bamboo pole is all for the fiberglass shaft that vaulters are using today.

"You can't stop progress," says Cornelius Warmerdam, Fresno State College track coach who hit 15 feet in 1940 and put the world record up to 15-7¾ outdoors and 15-8½ indoors, all with a bamboo pole.

"I think the performance of John Uelses in breaking the 16-foot barrier is just great," Warmerdam added. "There is no regulation as to what type of pole should be used. You can't have three or four records; one for hickory, another for steel; one for bamboo, one for ash and still another for fiberglass. We'll just have to revise our thinking on heights."

Warmerdam predicts vaults as high as 17 or 18 feet. He insists the vault is the same with steel or figerglass or bamboo.

"In vaulting, the human body becomes a projectile," Warmerdam explains. "Some vaulters get as much bend out of steel poles as they do with fiberglass. I don't see how you can legislate on the amount of bend in a pole."

The fiberglass pole used by Uelses is made by a Costa Mesa firm, Silaflex. George Davies, who set an outdoor record last spring, also uses one.

"We sold about 2,000 of them last year," says Herb Jenks, vice president of the concern, "and we're having trouble keeping up with the orders this year."

He said the first fiberglass vault pole used was one made of butt ends of jack poles used by commercial fishermen. The poles were moulded together. Bob Myers of Pasadena City College was the first to use it.

"Verg Jackson, who coached Olympic decathlon champion Bob Mathias when Bob was in high school, heard about the fiberglass pole, urged us to try more, and we built one for Mathias, who used it at Helsinki in 1952.

"By that time we had developed a new resin with better binding qualities, giving the new pole better impact strength," Jenkins says. "Just before the Olympics at Melbourne we made a new pole for George Roubanis, who represented Greece. When he finished third the pole really started to catch on."

Warmerdam belittles charges that the fiberglass pole catapults the vaulter.

"My boys use it," he says. "This subject has been kicked around by college track coaches at meetings and like everything else, opinion is divided. The only difference between the fiberglass pole and steel, as I see it, is timing."

Three other California track coaches also defended the fiberglass pole last night.

Brutus Hamilton of the University of California, Bud Winter of San Jose State and Payton Jordan of Stanford, agreed the pole represents progress.

Hamilton said he couldn't see that fiberglass is against the spirit of track and field.

"I don't want to go back to bamboo," Hamilton said, adding that he does not believe a rule could be made retroactive to wipe out Uelses' indoor mark, in any case.

Whatever advantages a vaulter gains from the catapult action of fiberglass poles is more than offset by increased obstacles, commented Winter.

"People are laboring under the illusion that all you have to do with fiberglass is hang on and fly off the handle, so to speak," said Winter. "That's not true. It takes special skills to handle this type of pole and a helluva a lot of courage."

"This gets down to a matter of physics," said Jordan at Stanford. "I'll have to see a lot more proof before I'd consider fiberglass illegal."

Let's Turn The Baseball Spotlight On Giants' Promising Young Hurlers

CONNOLLY

One of these days the baseball writers will take inventory of their output and go back to fundamentals. By that I mean every fan knows the home run ability of Orlando Cepeda, the all-around efficiency of Willie Mays and the details of the controversy over whether Willie McCovey can or cannot make it.

But, from what this old coot gathers, the majority of fans are eager and anxious to hear about the newcomer the San Francisco Giants will trot out pretty soon when they convene in Arizona.

Take the young pitchers, for instance. The Giants have five potential big leaguers in the "cooker" who might make regular berths in 1962.

But who are they?

You hear so much about the chances of Cepeda breaking Babe Ruth's home run record, and Willie McCovey, maybe, being an outfielder, that the kids who might be the reason for the Giants going somewhere are completely forgotten.

In today's gabfest I'd like to call attention to the newcomers.

ONE OF THE most interesting young pitchers with the Giants is Bob Bolin, a speedball artist who was just beginning to gain confidence in himself and control of his pitches in 1961 when he was sidetracked by an accident to his pitching hand. He managed to stick out the '61 season by taking part in 37 games, pitching 48 innings, striking out 48 and walking 37. He wound up with an earned run average of 3.19 and was second to Stu Miller, ace of the staff who was in 63 games and pitched 122 innings for an earned run leadership of 2.68.

Bolin is so swift his own teammates duck turns in batting practice. If he had better control there isn't any way anyone could measure his potential. I, for one think, he rates a real good try this year.

Ron Herbel, another young Giant righthander, has improved all through his apprenticeship days at Fresno, Eugene, and finally Tacoma, the top Giant farm club. Last season he won 16 and lost five, fanned 114, walked 86 and had an earned run mark of 3.57. He should be given a real chance in spring camp.

Next to Bolin and Herbel comes Gerry Thomas from Springfield. Gerry won 20 and lost seven last year, fanned 214, walked 88 in 32 games, pitching a total of 229 innings. His earned run average was a sparkling 2.40 per game.

Wouldn't you say he rates a close looksee?

Gaylord Perry, brother of Cleveland's Jim Perry, appears to be as hot as a firecracker. He was regarded as the best pitcher in the Coast League last season, winning 16 while losing 10. He led the league in earned runs with a 2.55 mark.

Perry, like Herbel, has made all the Giant farm club stops and wherever he has been sent he delivered in great fashion. So if anyone should catch the eye of the Giant brass, it should be Perry.

I'M MINDFUL of Dick LeMay, a skinny southpaw who got a chance last year. Dick had such perfect control the opposition teed off on him. And he is too softhearted to plunk a batter in the noggin or brush him back for the sake of himself. Maybe this spring Dick will shave the whiskers of the big, brave sluggers and help himself get some well-deserved recognition. I've heard it said he has everything but a good fastball. Maybe he'll come up with it in 1962.

The five pitchers I've mentioned could all make good. And if they do, the fates help manager Alvin Dark who will have to squeeze them into action while still keeping in mind such well-known flingers as Mike McCormick, Juan Marachal, Stu Miller, Jack Sanford, Billy Pierce, Don Larson, Billy O'Dell and Jim Duffalo, who, by the way, could be a real dark horse.

It's your move, Alvin. I'll pass for the moment.

Drake, Giants Lose Practice Cage Contests

Both Redwood and Sir Francis Drake high schools—the only Marin County Athletic League basketball teams in action yesterday—lost.

Also the San Rafael Military Academy suffered a 56-54 defeat at Half Moon Bay in a Bay Counties League game.

The Redwood Giants were downed by the College of Marin Junior Varsity 66-56, and Montgomery ran away from the Drake Pirates at Santa Rosa, 50-36.

Coach Carl Brown's Pirates went against powerful Montgomery without offensive star Brad Busch, who is ill with the flu and may not be able to go against Redwood in a MCAL tilt Friday. Filling the offensive gap, as he did in the MCAL tournament when Busch was out, was John McBride. McBride off on his shooting since the basketball festival, yesterday afternoon tallied a team high of 19 points. He did it on nine field goals, mostly from the outside guard spot, and on one free throw.

Other scorers for Drake were John Giesea and Don Baker who each had four points. John Wallace and Kirk Jensen both played fair defensively.

SCORING DUEL

In the other MCAL contest, Redwood's Jay Johnson racked up a fat 24 points against the college jay vees. But first string college varsity player Bill Wallace—usually a defensive star—yesterday paced the game with a high of 28 points. The first few minutes of the first period excepted, the Tars led all the way in a rough and tumble contest of 25 fouls against Redwood and 27 against Marin. The score was 18-15 for the Tars at halftime.

It was Redwood's highest game total for the season due not only to Johnson's effort but to Jud Longaker's (15) and Pete Coy's (12). Coy also stole 15 rebounds, about five more than his usual standout effort.

Johnson came through despite a 2-2 zone defensive, with the fifth Tar—Charles Bullock—loose on man-to-man defense against the Redwood guard.

NEAR VICTORY

In the Military Academy game, it looked like coach Larry Fulton's Cadets were going to come up with a Bay Counties League win this season as they led against Half Moon Bay until the final two minutes and then had the count tied 54-54 with 15 seconds in the game. But the Moonshiners stole the ball on a sloppy Cadet pass in the final seconds and scored the winning field goal.

Jim Sulgar paced the Cadets with 18 points. Other scorers were Terry Hoffman, 11; Chuck Taber, 8; Dave Kerr, 7; Bob Hammond, 6, and Tony Fahden, 4. Fahden, a reserve who replaced Hoffman during much of the game, did a commendable job. Hoffman was fat with fouls early in the contest.

MARIN'S SPORT SHOW SCHEDULED NEXT MONTH

Board of Directors of the Marin Rod and Gun Club last night unanimously agreed to continue their annual Sports and Boat Show and set the ninth annual event for Mar. 23-24-25 at Bermuda Palms Hotel, San Rafael.

Rumors last week indicated the club would abandon the project, but a special meeting last night proved the reports completely false.

The directors appointed Bernard "Barney" DeBisschop chairman of the show for the ninth consecutive year. He said approximately 80 per cent of the show's exhibitors' space has been completed, and added, "We won't have any trouble filling the rest."

The show, DeBisschop said, "again will feature display of the newest items in boating, hunting, fishing and other outdoors activities."

Report Moore-Fullmer Title Go Set For May

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jack Kearns says Archie Moore will put his light-heavyweight crown on the line in May against Gene Fullmer, the NBA middleweight champion.

"The Fullmer match is practically agreed upon by Marv Jenson and myself," said Kearns. Jenson is Fullmer's manager. Kearns handles negotiations for Moore's title fights.

Kearns said yesterday he would ask the California Athletic Commission to recognize the Moore-Fullmer bout as a championship match.

The NBA took its title from Moore last year, saying he wasn't fighting enough to keep the 175-pound crown.

Outside the NBA, however—which means California and New York — the 45-year-old Moore still is recognized as the light-heavyweight champ.

Kearns said Moore would meet Argentine heavyweight Alejandro Lavorante March 30.

"That comes first and then Fullmer," said Kearns.

RECORD SERIES OF 716 BOWLED AT NAVE LANES

A record high three-game series was entered in the Nave Lanes record books last night in the Men's Handicap League.

Army Major "Rog" Rajala, a resident of Marinwood, fired the total of 716 pins on games of 238,254 and 224. A spokesman for the 18-month-old Ignacio bowling center said it was the highest three-game total ever bowled there.

Maj. Rajala, who is stationed at Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco, bowls for the Cox TV team. His score enabled his teammates to win three of four points in last night's competition.

Littler, Palmer Rate Favorites In Phoenix

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — British Open Champion Arnold Palmer and U.S. Open king Gene Littler were installed today as co-favorites in the $35,000 Phoenix Open tournament which gets under way tomorrow on the beautiful Phoenix Country Club course.

It's the first time this year that there have been any outstanding favorites to win an event.

Palmer moved up to the top with his victory at Palm Springs; Littler, who won the Lucky International at San Francisco the week before, barely missed out at Palm Springs.

"Anybody can win it," said Littler during a practice round. "Just depends on who is hot."

Littler now is the leading money winner of the year with $14,050 to his credit. Phil Rodgers, who won the Los Angeles Open, is next in line with $10,225; Tommy Jacobs, who won at San Diego, comes next with $7,674 Palmer has $7,125.

There hasn't been a single duplicate winner so far this year. The other 1962 tournament, the Bing Crosby, was won by Doug Ford.

The Phoenix Country Club, with its new million dollar club house, is 6,765 yards long, with the fairways heavily lined with Palm trees.

"There will be a premium on accuracy in driving," said Bernard Hunt, the German Open champion from England.

Hunt is barely "paying expenses" with $1,612 to his credit so far—which places him in 38th place in the money standings.

Among those absent from this event is Gary Player of South Africa, the leading money winner on the 1961 tour. Gary left to take a five-week vacation in his native land. Appearing in five tourneys, he had winnings of only $1,580, compared with more than $12,000 for the same distance last year.

A new compilation of top money-winners since official standings have been kept in 1947 showed that Art Wahl, the quiet man from Pocono Manor, Pa., joined the select list of 10 men who have won more than $200,000. Doug Ford tops the list with $284,684.

Wall is in 10th place, with $200,447.98 — right behind Lloyd Mangrum.

In contrast to the Palm Springs Classic, which is over the 90-hole route and played on five courses, this event is all played on one course and over the regulation 72-hole distance.

S.F. Skipper 2nd In Race To Acapulco

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Winds of 20 to 25 knots were expected to fill the sails of 21 yachts most of today as they continued on a 1,430 mile race from San Diego to Acapulco, Mexico.

Race officials in San Diego said the sailing conditions would be good, better than Monday night when several boats' sails were blown down.

Escapade, a 72-foot yawl piloted by Baldwin M. Baldwin of Newport Harbor, Calif., was in the lead on a boat-for-boat basis when the yachts checked in by radio with headquarters in San Diego last night. It was 376 miles away.

However, under handicap rules, the 50-foot sloop Legend piloted by Chuck Ullman of Balboa, Calif. was in first place at 362 miles. Following Legend under handicap conditions were Tim Mosely's Orient of San Francisco at 366 miles and Escapade.

Siris II, which led earlier, was second on a boat-for-boat basis at 371 miles and Orient was third.

In handicap places were the following by classes:

Class A: Legend, Orient, Escapade.

Class B: Kialoa, 366; Mickey, 332; Roland Von Vremen, 333.

Class C: Oceana, 317; Gamin, 318; Desert Star, 302.

The first boats are expected to arrive at Acapulco Feb. 13 or 14, officials said.

Winner Saints Play Tonight

CLEVELAND (AP) — The San Francisco Saints, sporting a 10-2 record, the best in the American Basketball League, take on the Cleveland Pipers again tonight.

The barnstorming Saints beat the Pipers 126-123 in Sandusky last night. Jim Francis tallied 36 points and popped in the winning basket with 19 seconds to go.

Dick Barnett scored 32 points for the Pipers, who took the lead in the second quarter and held it until the final five minutes when San Francisco forged ahead. The halftime score was 61-55 and the Pipers had a 93-87 lead at the end of three periods.

Then the Saints caught fire. Gene Brown added two free throws in the closing seconds for the San Franciscans after Francis' winning masket.

Drake Bs Beaten By Montgomery '5'

The Sir Francis Drake Pirates — the only Marin County Athletic League Class B basketball team in action yesterday—were cut off by Montgomery of Santa Rosa 39-35. High scorer for the Pirates was Walt Klenz with 13.

The Redwood Junior Varsity basketball squad downed the Marin Catholic Wildcats 41-34, and the Terra Linda Jay Vees were dumped 53-49 by the Terra Nova Tigers of Pacific yesterday.

High scorers for Redwood: Joel Tobiason, 12; Dave Auerbach and Scott Davi, 11 each; for Marin, Paul Gockel, 12, and Mike Ferrua, 7.

Blacklist Charged In Nat'l Tennis Squabble

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Indoor Tennis Championships get under way tonight with Wimbledon champion Rod Laver of Australia the favorite.

His main competition from the domestic list will come from Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., now ranked the No. 1 player in the United States; Chuck McKinley of St. Louis; Don Dell of Bethesda, Md., and Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla.

But Jon Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., No. 4 player in the U.S. Lawn Tennis Assn. rankings, and Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., No. 11 and rated by many experts the top young player in the country, will be among the missing.

Walter "Tex" Schwab, the tournament chairman, accused southern California tennis czar Perry Jones of sabotaging the championships by setting up a black list.

This Jones promptly denied. He said: (1) He isn't a czar; (2) he doesn't have a blacklist; (3) the pair couldn't make the indoors because of studies and commitments in California.

Harold Lebair, USLTA treasurer, also was upset by Schwab's charges.

"Nothing of the sort," he said. "There is no blacklist. We just concluded our annual meeting in Los Angeles and discussed the matter of Douglas and Ralston playing. This is still a free country and we can't force them to play here if they don't want to."

Ralston was suspended last year after being charged with unsportsmanlike conduct during a preliminary Davis Cup match against Mexico in Cleveland. He recently was reinstated.

Said Ralston:

"The only tournament I'm interested in is the Pan-American Championships next week in Mexico City. Rafael Osuna and I wanted to play there. I just can't be out of school two weeks and go to both tournaments."

"It certainly looks to us like we are on Jones' blacklist," Schwab thundered. "I wish he would tell us why so it would clear the atmosphere. This is not a new thing. It has been going on for years.

"We tried for two weeks to get through with phone calls and wires and finally got Jones to give his permission. But then the two players, who had been most willing to come, suddenly refused."

Schwab added that Jones tried to keep Pancho Gonzales out of the indoors in 1949 without success and attempted to have Alex Olmedo skip it in 1959, again failing.

Hearings Slated On Regulation Change Proposals

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interior Department has announced that public hearings will be held here Feb. 28, in St. Louis March 7 and at San Francisco March 9 on two proposed changes in the migratory bird permit regulations.

One proposal would establish user's fees ora charges for the issuance of propagating and taxidermist permits. The other would change the definition of "wild migratory birds" so as to make all migratory birds, whether raised in captivity or not, subject to regulation under permit.

The hearings in San Francisco will be at the Fairmount Hotel.

Huge Scoreboards To Tell L.A. Fans What's Going On

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Baseball fans attending games in Dodger Stadium will be surfeited with information from two huge scoreboards.

The scoreboard in right centerfield will carry the usual information on the lineups, balls and strikes and line score. The board in left centerfield will carry special messages for the crowd by means of an electronic typewriter. This board will be four times larger than the one in use in Yankee Stadium and by far the largest in baseball.

Owner Walter O'Malley wants the fans to have as much information on what is going on before their eyes as the folks at home who are listening to the Dodger radio broadcasts.

"The fans were bringing their portable radios to the Coliseum so they could get some of the inside of the game from our broadcasters," says O'Malley. "We don't want to rub their noses in statistics all the time but we do feel that a certain amount is desirable."

Son Of Kong Follows In Steps Of Dad

By OSCAR FRALEY

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI)—Young Charlie Keller said today he doesn't mind it a bit being the son of Kong.

King Kong, that is. Which is what his father was known as in the days he was one of the mightiest of the New York Yankee fence busters.

But no matter what the comparisons, young Charlie said as he put on Yankee flannels for the first time at the opening of the New York training camp, it's something he has to do.

"Dad told me to do what it was that I really wanted to do," explained the 22-year-old husky from Frederick, Md. "He said it's better to try it and fail than not to try and regret it the rest of my life."

TERROR AT PLATE

It's been more than a decade since "King Kong" left the big leagues. A stocky man who appeared to have been hacked out of granite, Keller's appearance terrorized pitchers as they looked down to the plate where he crouched menacingly at bat. Then came an operation for a ruptured disc and, while he finished up at Detroit, it never was the same. So he stepped out in 1951.

A first baseman, King Kong's son has all the equipment to make it big "in a couple of years," according to Yankee general manager Roy Hamey. Six feet, two and one-half inches tall and weighing a solid 191 pounds, young Charlie has the same thing going for him that his dad had—a big bat.

"He's one of those real nonchalant guys," said Hamey analytically. "He swings the bat real good and has fine power."

Young Charlie got off to a slow start in organized ball because of a bad back. He hit only .291 at St. Petersburg in 1959 and then in 1960 batted .304 for Fargo-Moorhead.

"I had the back operated on December of 1959," he recalls. "It still handicapped me some in 1960 because I didn't have any power, but last year I felt that I was all over the operation."

A BIG SEASON

He should have. Because young Charlie led the Eastern League at Binghamton with 38 doubles and 17 triples and won the batting title with a .349 average. He rapped out 19 home runs to boot.

"They're all too tense in the beginning," pointed out batting coach Joe DiMaggio, who was a teammate of Charlie's dad. "But a kid like this has an even greater load on him."

But young Charlie isn't blaming anything on the old man.

"Sure, the fans get on me once in a while," he shrugged. "But I don't pay it any attention. I do the best I can. My dad broke in with the Yankees in 1939, the year I was born. But we're all a new crop now and what our fathers did isn't going to help or hinder us. It's strictly up to us."

Loser Seals Face Top Team Tonight

EDMONTON, Alta. (AP)—The San Francisco Seals, still languishing in the Western Hockey League's Southern Division cellar, tangle with the Northern Division leader, Edmonton, tonight.

The Seals were beaten 6-3 by the Calgary Stampeders at Calgary last night. San Francisco goalie Bev Bentley made 41 stops, but Calgary wingman Lou Jankowski and his mates were just too much.

Jankowski scored two goals and assisted in a third to lead individual scorers.

Seal scoring was done by Ray Cyr, Gordy Redahl and Buddy Boone.

FOUR DECADES WITH DISTRICT—Wallace Andrews of Mill Valley, counselor at Sir Francis Drake High School who has taught in Tamalpais High School District for 40 years, announced last night he will retire in June.

43-YEAR CAREER ENDING

Andrews Is Retiring From Tam District

A teaching career which began in September, 1919, for Wallace Andrews of Mill Valley will come to a close in June.

Andrews announced his retirement to the Tamalpais High School District board last night. His 43-year teaching career has included 40 years in the Tam district.

A graduate of Doane College, Neb., Andrews came to California in 1921 following two years of teaching experience in Nebraska. His purpose was to do a year of graduate study at University of California.

During that year he learned about Tam High in Mill Valley, liked the school and community so well that he and his wife, Fern, decided to settle here.

He taught mathematics, headed the department and served as a counselor at Tam until Sir Francis Drake High School opened in 1951. At Drake he was a counselor and mathematics teacher until 1959 when he was assigned to the district National Defense Education Act project in counseling, leaving the classroom but continuing with counseling for Drake students.

Andrews, who was a college basketball player, coached basketball at Tam for 20 years. For almost that long, he also was Tam's tennis coach.

The Andrews live at 333 Hillside Avenue, Mill Valley. They have been active in the Mill Valley Community Church since its founding. Andrews twice served as board chairman.

His son, Donald, a 1942 Tam graduate, is a teacher in San Francisco.

No firm plans during retirement have been made as yet, but tentative plans include some leisurely travel beginning with a trip to Hawaii, probably next spring.

Brown Asks U.S. Aid For Medical School Expansion

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown has called on the federal government to help states expand their medical school facilities.

Noting that what he called a trend in this country to use physicians educated in other countries, Brown expressed his "strong endorsement" of the Health Professions Educational Assistance bill now before Congress.

In a letter to Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.), Brown said that without speeded up construction of medical schools, California will have half its needed facilities by 1971.

Brown's new state budget includes 11 million dollars for an addition to the Los Angeles Medical Center of the University of California to expand the medical class from 72 to 128 students.

It also includes nearly four million dollars for an addition to UC's San Francisco Medical Center clinics building.

The expansion of the program has been endorsed by the Marin branch of the American Cancer Society who supplied the film strip "To Smoke or Not to Smoke."

Lawmakers Try To Save Nation's Golden Eagles

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Four dead eagles have appeared as witnesses at a Congressional hearing.

One was a full-grown bald eagle, crowned with an bundance of white hair. It was easy to pick out.

But the other three looked alike to the members of the House Wildlife Conservation Subcommittee.

One was a young bald eagle, one was a young golden eagle, and the third was a mature golden eagle.

The four birds were accompanied by representatives of the Interior Department who appeared in support of a House joint resolution to give the golden eagle the same protection as the bald eagle.

In 1940, Congress put the bald eagle, the national emblem, under its protective wing to keep it from extinction.

The Interior Department conceded frankly that the resolution was intended to give more protection to the bald eagle rather than extending the longevity of the golden eagle, which serves as no symbol.

Rep. Silvio O. Conte (R-Conn.) explained why.

"The primary hazard that remains is the fact that it is virtually impossible for anyone except a trained ornithologist to tell the difference between the golden eagle and an immature bald eagle," Conte said "until the bald eagle develops the characteristic white head and tail feathers in its fourth year of life."

Noble E. Buell, chief of the wildlife division in the Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife, said that changing the Bald Eagle Act would provide some enforcement problems.

"Band and golden eagles have somewhat different food habits," he said, "and our department would need to give different regulatory treatment to the taking of golden eagles when found destroying livestock or game."

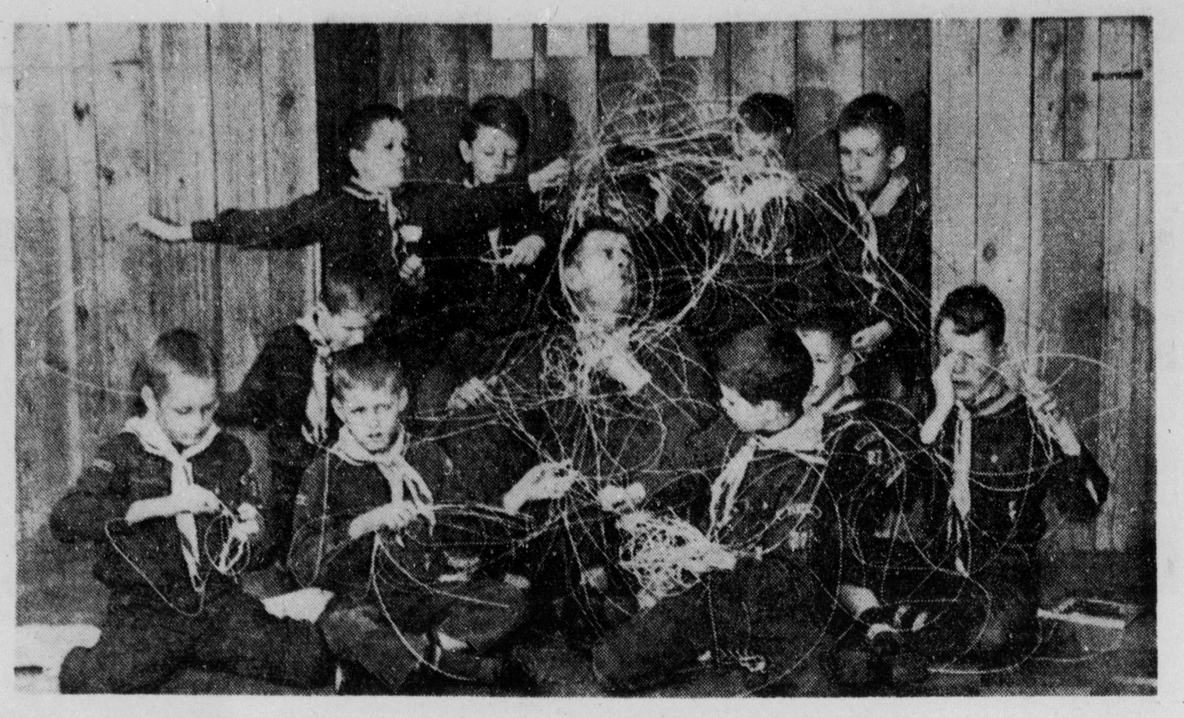
He suggested that it will be necessary to permit livestock owners to kill golden eagles which attack or about to attack livestock.

Sonoma Hospital Chief Appointed

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Dr. D. M. Bramwell, acting superintendent of Sonoma State Hospital, recently was appointed permanent director of the facility.

In another appointment, Dr. John A. Mitchell was named to succeed Dr. G. Dean Tipton as superintendent and medical director of DeWitt State Hospital. Dr. Tipton retired.

The appointments were announced by the State Department of Mental Hygiene.



FATHER IS A DEN MOTHER

Den mothers frequently get wrapped up in their work—even when the mother is a father. Robert M. Williams (somewhere in the center) is a den mother, believed to be the only male holding down that post in the Rochester, N.Y., area's Otentiana Council of Boy Scouts. The above was supposed to be a class in basket weaving. This is how it turned out. The Scout council "does not recommend" male den mothers, but Williams, father of four, is filling a need. Needy Children Aid Increases

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Aid to Needy Children recipients increased by 2,500 to a total of 261,300 in California during December.

The figure was 11 per cent higher than the December, 1960 total.

Total assistance payments, according to the State Department of Social Welfare, rose by $103,200 to a total of 14.6 million dollars during the month, 10 per cent higher than in December, 1960.

THE MEANING OF POLICY As It Concerns Our PRESCRIPTION PRICES

First let us define exactly what the word "policy" means to us. This word is often used . . . and often used loosely to mean many things. Policy as it concerns Drake Pharmacy means that a business firm generally establishes for itself certain rules of conduct used as a guide for the handling of the products they sell, the manner in which they serve their customers, and the future evisioned for their business.

Four years ago we felt that prescription pricing, as it concerned our store, could stand revision that would bring more benefit to our customers without restricting our profit. Our pricing called "Low Prescription Prices" went into effect to the acclaim of our customers, doctors, fellow pharmacists, people in public life, etc.

Present and future policy is to keep the public informed as to prescription costs . . . adapt any method that gives the public better prices and allows us a fair profit (i.e. Cal Prescription Pricing, New Prescription Pricing). At the same time we include all possible services (i.e. S&H Green Stamps, Free Delivery).

IT IS OUR POLICY TO GIVE THE FOLLOWING SERVICES

CAL PRESCRIPTION PRICING

Cal is short for California's Public Assistance Prescription Fee Schedule. This schedule was devised by the state for sale of prescription drugs to those needing state assistance. We immediately lowered any prices higher than this list so that all would have the benefit of these minimums. We did not raise any prices that might have been lower than this schedule.

NEW PRESCRIPTION PRICING

Our own study shows us that prescriptions brought to us as written by the doctor involve less cost in handling. Therefore we have adopted an additional schedule for added benefits to customers bringing their prescriptions to us in this manner. Regardless of the prescription filled—we invite you to inquire as to cost, in advance. We believe you will find maximum saving benefits at Drake Pharmacy. (The drugs listed for your information are from our New Prescription List and are merely examples.)

S&H GREEN STAMPS

These stamps are redeemable in merchandise and are offered as a bonus to our customers regardless of their purchase.

FREE DELIVERY

This service is available because we realize that though not every prescription order is an emergency . . . it is of utmost importance to the buyer—and we wish to treat it as such.

PLUS PRESCRIPTION PRICING SUCH AS THE FOLLOWING

THIS RECIPE USING chicken breasts with orange includes a delightful dressing made with the new Wonder Soft-Whipped Bread. The dressing is made from cubes of bread and keeps a light texture.

Delightful Souffle

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Such delightful things to do with Swiss Cheese! Do you usually use cheddar cheese in a souffle? Change about! Try Swiss for an interesting flavor turnaround.

A chef's salad simply isn't the real thing without Swiss cheese. But one must: the cheese must be cut in match-like strips. Don't ask us why. All we know is that this way it tastes best.

Use the cheese for grilled sandwiches, adding ham if you like. You can make these in a skillet, adding plenty of butter and toasting the sandwiches until golden brown. We think these are particularly good made with a robust whole-wheat bread. Company coming for lunch? Serve these sandwiches with mango chutney spooned into tiny lettuce cups; add a tossed green salad dressed with olive oil and wine vinegar, salt and freshly ground pepper.

SWISS CHEESE SOUFFLE
- ⅓ cup butter
- ⅓ cup flour
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ½ teaspoon paprika
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 1½ cups milk
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- ½ pound finely grated Swiss cheese (about 2 cups)
- 6 eggs (separated)

Melt butter in a saucepan over low heat; stir in flour, salt, paprika and pepper. Add milk; cook and stir constantly until thickened. Remove from heat. Add Worcestershire and gradually the cheese, stirring vigorously until melted. Cook slightly. Beat egg yolks until thick and pale colored; fold thoroughly into cheese mixture. Beat egg whites until they hold soft peaks; fold gently but thoroughly into cheese mixture. Pour into an ungreased 2-quart souffle dish or similar casserole. Set in pan of hot water. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 1 hour or until a silver knife inserted in center comes out clean.. Makes 6 servings.

Morning Cookies Not Too Sweet

We find these sugar-topped rounds wonderfully satisfying, not too sweet.

MORNING COOKIES
- 1 package active dry yeast
- ⅓ cup warm water
- ¾ cup butter or margarine
- 1½ cups sifted flour
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup quick-cooking rolled oats
- Sugar

Sprinkle yeast over water to soften. Beat butter until creamy; add flour, salt and rolled oats; mix until crumbly. Stir in thoroughly the softened yeast. Chill 1 hour. Shape dough into walnut-size balls; press flat; place in sugar; turn to coat both sides. Bake a few inches apart on ungreased cookie sheets in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 15 minutes. Serve warm or cold.

Chicken Breasts With Orange Dressing Has Whipped Bread

This plate of Chicken Breasts with Orange which includes a delightful dressing made with the new Wonder Soft-Whipped Bread is a recipe that will easily meet any situation. For one thing you know how accomodating chicken can be when entertaining, a little longer than you planned in the oven isn't going to ruin it.

The dressing made from cubes of bread keeps a rather light texture and the fruit flavors with the chicken are refreshing.

CHICKEN BREASTS WITH ORANGE
- 2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
- 2 teaspoons grated orange rind
- ½ cup orange juice
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- ½ cup brown sugar firmly packed
- 2 tablespoons sherry (optional)
- 1½ qts. day old Wonder Soft-Whipped Bread cut into cubes (½ inch)
- ½ cup chopped parsley
- ½ cup chopped celery
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 6 breasts chicken
- Paprika
- Salt

Place 1 teaspoon lemon rind, the orange rind, orange juice, lemon juice and brown sugar in a saucepan. Bring to boil, then simmer for 20 minutes. Remove from heat and add Sherry — combine cubes of Wonder Soft-Whipped Bread, parsley, celery, salt and remaining lemon rind. Place cube mixture in lightly greased (9 or 10 inch) square pan. Top with breasts of chicken. Pour half of sauce over chicken, then season with salt and paprika. Bake in moderate oven (350 degree F) for 45 minutes. Pour rest of sauce over chicken and cook for another 30 minutes or until tender and brown. Remove dressing from pan and place on platter. Top with chicken breasts and garnish. Six servings.

Ever Serve Scrapple?

Dedicated cooks are missionaries at heart. They spread news of America's regional recipes.

That's how Pennsylvania's scrapple got to New England.

What's scrapple? Cornmeal mush, molded with pork and seasonings, and then sliced and fried.

It's said that once upon a time a Philadelphia lady married and went to live in Rhode Island. Finding life without scrapple unbearable, she introduced the dish.

So successful was the introduction that such a recipe compilation as "Foods of Old New England," for which Kenneth Roberts wrote the introduction, gives directions for making scrapple.

Years ago a Pennsylvania cook sent a pan of scrapple to some Southern cousins who immediately chipped off bits and ate them "as is." No wonder these particular Southerners disliked the stuff! The donor had neglected to tell her relatives that there must be a close relationship between slices of scrapple and the bottom of a big black frying pan.

Nowadays Southern cook books are likely to give recipes for scrapple, sometimes noting local variations of the dish. In South Carolina, lean beef is occasionally added to the pork that's combined with the cornmeal.

There's an ersatz version of scrapple that may be easily made. Instead of cooked pork, bulk-style pork sausage is used —as in the following recipe. Served with fried apple rings and maple syrup, this sausage scrapple is definitely worth eating.

SAUSAGE SCRAPPLE
- 1 pound pork sausage meat
- 1 cup cold water
- 1 cup enriched white or yellow corn meal
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Pepper (to taste)
- ½ teaspoon thyme
- 3 cups boiling water

In a medium-sized hot heavy skillet, fry the sausage, crumbling it with a fork. Drain fat from cooked sausage. Stir together the cold water, corn meal, salt, pepper and thyme; slowly pour into boiling water in a saucepan, stirring constantly. Cook until thickened, stirring often. Cover; continue cooking over low heat for 5 minutes (for white corn meal) or 10 minutes (for yellow corn meal), stirring occasionally. Mix in thoroughly the drained sausage. Turn into a loaf pan (about 8 by 4 by 3 inches) that has been rinsed in cold water. Cool 20 to 30 minutes; cover and chill overnight. Turn out; cut into ½-inch slices. Fry slowly on hot greased griddle or in hot greased skillet until golden brown, about 8 to 10 minutes per side. This takes considerable patience but the results are worthwhile. Keep fried slices hot in a warm oven. Serve with fried apple rings and maple syrup. Makes 8 servings.

Economical Spanish Hash Gets Cozy With Only Pork Chop

When you want to make a little meat go a long way, we think you'll thoroughly enjoy this recipe from Spanish cuisine. It's a vegetable hash that gets cozy with one pork chop.

The dish has another persuasive feature. Once the vegetables are prepared, it can be cooked quickly in a skillet. If you have an electric skillet, you'll find it's perfect for cooking and serving this hash. But a regular rangetop deep skillet will also do well.

This Pisto Manchego, to give the dish its Spanish name, looks wonderful. Its combination of colors—the white of the onion, the scarlet of the pimientos, the green or yellow of the unpared squash, the brown of the meat—make a bright patchwork against the tomato sauce. Then for a final flourish, strips of "pancake egg" are scattered over the top to add their brightness as well as substance and flavor.

We enjoyed this dish for lunch. To accompany it, you need only crusty rolls and good butter. If you offer the Pisto Manchego at an evening meal, you'll want to add a hearty dessert. A pear cobbler made with fresh or canned pears, with baking powder biscuit dough or pie pastry, would be delicious. Or if your family has been hankering after old-fashioned apple dumplings baked in a sweet rich sauce, this may be time to serve them.

PISTO MANCHEGO
- 1 large pork chop
- 4 tablespoons olive oil
- 3 medium onions (cut in thin strips)
- 1 pound zucchini or summer-type yellow squash
- 1 can (4 ounces) pimientos (drained and diced)
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- Salt and pepper
- Pancake egg

Cut away fat and bone from meat; dice fine. In a large skillet cook pork lightly in 2 tablespoons of the olive oil; push to one side. Add remaining 2 tablespoons olive oil and onion; cook very slowly until softened but not browned. With a slotted spoon, remove pork and onion. Add squash to skillet; cook until tender-crisp, stirring occasionally. Return pork and onion to skillet; add pimiento, tomato sauce, salt and pepper. Simmer 15 to 20 miutes. Top with Pancake Egg. Serve at once. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Pancake Egg: Beat 6 eggs just until yolks and whites are combined. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a 10-inch skillet; add eggs. Cook gently without stirring until firm; covering toward end of cooking to dry top. Eggs on bottom of skillet should not brown. Turn out and cut in squares or rectangles to use as topping for vegetable hash.

Interior Designer To Address Novato Garden Club Tuesday

Mrs. Charles P. Davies, (Elizabeth Banning), nationally known interior designer and color expert, will be guest speaker at the Novato Garden Club meeting Tuesday at Trevitt Hall at 1 p.m. A dessert luncheon will be served at noon.

An interior designer in San Francisco since 1936, Mrs. Davies has offices in Maiden Lane. She attended Northwestern University and Chicago Art Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Davies reside in a new house on a plateau at their Indian Valley Ranch, Indian Valley Road.

In the biography of Mrs. Davies in Who's Who in America and Who's Who of American Women it is stated that she "Collaborated with architects throughout the country in developing color plans for residences as well as banks, railroad terminals, restaurants and many installations where a women's work has heretofore been unknown."

During the 10 years that she was retained by Manning's Restaurants in developing interior plans, Mrs. Davies traveled to Guatemala and the Yucatan to study the coffee-growing countries and brought back the story of coffee which was used in murals on the restaurant walls of Mannings depicting the legend of coffee.

At the Garden Club meeting Mrs. Davies will show color photographs on the screen of town plazas that were taken in Guatemala and the Yucatan. She hopes to "inspire the people of Novato to develop something of unusual interest befitting the magnificent setting in which we live."

She will also show transparences taken when she and her husband made an around-the-world trip in 1956. Mrs. Davies will show how small towns in Japan and France have captivated the interest of world travelers with simple but well-planned parks and recreational areas.

ELIZABETH BANNING
(DuCharme photo)

Mrs. Davies stated "Plans must be made now to make Novato noticeably beautiful by retaining a part-time parks and recreational consultant to study the area, pursue a suitable site and develop long-range plans whereby central plaza and park area can be established.

Among the many outstanding personalities residences that Mrs. Davies planned the interiors of their homes included that of Artur Rubinsteins' home in Beverly Hills, now of Paris and New York and recently for the Jascha Heifetz residence in Southern California. She has also planned the interior for many Marin residences.

The public is invited to attend the meeting, according to Mrs. Lawrason Driscoll, program chairman of the Garden Club.

If Your Children Don't Know How To Study, You Teach Them

Do your children know how to study? If not, teach them. Don't wait for someone else to do the job. Study habits are very important.

How do you teach them? Start early. Many schools give homework to children in the primary grades. Other schools wait until the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Be sure you know when the assignments begin. At that time set up a daily routine which provides regular home study periods. Don't question the teachers' judgment. Don't say you're against homework. Just assume from the start that all homework will be done promptly.

Have a place in which your children can study. A separate room is best. If your youngsters have their own bedrooms, they can study in them. If not, put one in a bedroom, one at the dinner table, and so on. It's almost impossible for them to concentrate when they are together.

At first they'll need your help. You'll have to explain their assignments. You'll have to answer their questions about papers and how to write them. If you're puzzled, ask the teacher. She'll tell you. But be careful not to do the work for them. Don't bail 'em out when they're behind. Let them suffer the consequences. The idea is to teach them to do their own work efficiently.

Get dictionaries for them. If possible, buy a good encyclopedia set. Make sure the light, heat and ventilation are okay. Try to get a typewriter and have them learn to use it. It may raise their grades. Don't interrupt them unnecessarily. Every time you break their train of thought you waste many minutes. Keep the family TV down low. If their friends phone, tell them to call later. Studying is a serious business.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Is it true children have more homework today than we had when we were in school?"
L.B.

(A) Yes, it is. There has been a great increase. Homework has more than doubled in classes for superior and gifted students.

CHANEL LOOKS FOR SPRING

A column of white wool, left, flaring slightly at the hem, is Chanel's coat look for spring, 1962. Double-breasted, fastened with small gilt buttons, the coat has neatly-tailored notched lapels. Chanel's suit, right, features a shorter, narrower jacket with a bit more fit. Suit skirts are short and easy, with low inverted pleats at front and back. This version, in red and grey plaid wool, is lined and faced in red pongee to match the blouse. Lapels and pocket flaps are trimmed in the same red pongee. (UPI photos)

Valentine Styles Run Half And Half

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK — The complimentary and the comic run about even in the new crop of Valentines.

But contemporary comics have a long way to go to match the apparently unintentional humor which shows in an antique card the Museum of the City of New York currently is exhibiting.

The Valentine, stamped 1845, carries a hand-written verse of impassioned content, absentmindedly addressed to ". . . Emma . . ."

The so-called vinegar or slam Valentines, 1962, are less vicious than their predecessors at the turn of the century, but they still get their insulting message across.

Some examples which represents the industry:

"Now that I've met you, do you know what I's going to SHOUT from the rooftops, Valentine? JUMP!"

Or, "Valentine, your most outstanding characteristic is your even disposition. You're always NASTY."

Or, "Valentine, I've finally figured out your weakness. You're stupid."

Or, in the same vein, "You're not the only man I could ask to be my Valentine, but you're the only one I know who's stupid enough to accept."

ABOUT HALF

Steve Shannon, director of the association, said that the fun-type cards, where puns, gimmicks and slams dominate, make up about half of all Valentines sold.

The division between the humorous and the romantic has been about the same for the more than 100 years they've been printed in the United States.

The Greeting Card Association estimated that 600 million missives will be exchanged on Feb. 14, some 70 million more than in 1961. Shannon didn't want to estimate how many millions of dollars would be spent.

He said Valentine sales run second to Christmas cards, with Easter and Mother's Day cards in third and fourth place. Valentines make up from eight to 10 per cent of all card sales; Christmas, 50 per cent.

All of which means that the expression of love, or other sentiment, has become big business since the first paper Valentines appeard abroad around 1400. In those days, the association said, St. Valentine's Day was a controversial subject, for its origin was linked to a pagan feast.

RED APPLES

Valentines then were delivered surreptitiously. But as the custom grew, and the connection to the pagan feast dimmed, the daring of the senders also increased. Bachelors once tossed Valentines tied to red apples to their sweethearts through open windows.

By the 18th and early 19th centuries, Valentines were considered a serious proposal of marriage. Rival suiters frequently were judged by the ingenuity of their Valentines. That is how the ghost versifier grew — he opened shop and prospered on the Valentine trade. England's bookstalls were flooded with "Valentine writers," a series of pamphlets with foolproof vorses, and learned tips on how to make bigger and better Valentines.

The so-called golden age of Valentines was between 1830 and 1860, when the machine-made lace paper and colored, cutout decorations came on the market. With enough foolproof makings for everybody, the do-it-yourself craze was on.

Marin Women

FAMILY FARE

Women Increasingly Take Paying Jobs Outside Home

Look around the neighborhood, and chances are—statistically, at any rate—that two out of five families will have more than one wage-earner.

Look next year and there'll probably be more of these families.

In the last five years, "multi-earner" families have been increasing at an average of 3 per cent annually, which is to say that in an average year there are 103 such families where there were only 100 the previous year.

With more families becoming "multi-earner" families, statistics seem to indicate that by 1970 at least half the homes in the United States will have more than one wage-earner.

The development of the "multi-earner" family involves women primarily, because in the typical family with a second earner, the wife is very apt to be that earner. (In other homes with more than one earner, they are usually grown children still living with their families.)

Women take jobs outside the home for a multitude of reasons. The basic one, of course, is to add to family income. Often a wife works to help with a major financial goal—the purchase of a home, a new car, college education for a youngster. Many a wife has gone to work with the thought of adding to her family's funds for retirement.

A woman may have other reasons for working. A wife in her 40's, her children grown, may feel herself free now to take a job where she can put her education to use, or once again employ the skills she developed in her job before marriage.

How much money working wives contribute to family income varies widely. Three things are involved: the nature of the job, whether a wife works full-time or part-time, and the extra expenses related to the job. Most women realize that with a job they will spend more for clothing, cosmetics, beauty parlor services and transportation than a full-time homemaker. They may not realize the degree of the added expense of meals and household upkeep.

For the nation as a whole, wives who work full-time do boost their family income considerably; they contribute 38 per cent of their families' income, on an average.

Frequently it is the wife's earnings that raise her family into the middle income group. As the Department of Labor found recently, among families in the $7,000 to $10,000 income bracket where wives worked, they brought home, on the average 30 per cent of the family's total spending power.

British Editor Says Queen Glamorous Fashion Plate

LONDON (UPI) — A leading British fashion editor said today that Queen Elizabeth, in her 10 years on the throne, has developed from a dowdy dresser to a glamorous fashion plate with "The tiniest waist and the prettiest shoulders in London."

Queen Elizabeth, 35, who marked the 10th anniversary of her accession to the throne yesterday, got the wildly approving once over from Daily Express fashion editor Jill Butterfield.

When the Queen ascended to the throne in 1952 she was according to Miss Butterfield, "A tiny, lonely glittering little figure crusted in diamonds and caged in with pearls." And her complexion was the "Peachy" envy of all.

But, alas, for the way she dressed.

"Do you remember," said Miss Butterfield, "Those slingbacked open-toed sandals, those vicarage garden party pastels, those hats worn for convention rather than flattery, that debutante dreary spotted white organdie she wore at the early Buckingham Palace garden parties?"

Miss Butterfield said the Queen's appearance years ago made her look "Both ridiculously matronly and . . . like a little girl playing as mother."

But Queen Elizabeth learned fast—being subjected to "Analytical, cat-edged scrutiny every woman in the world gives to her better-off neighbor."

By 1958, the fashion editor recounted, the Queen was elected fifth best-dressed woman in the world and by 1959 international fashion experts had made her a founder member of the fashion "Hall of Fame."

"By 1961," said Miss Butterfield, "An enthusiastic American was describing her as a 'knock out, a wow, a doll who can generate wolf whistles.'"

Patricia Slayton Wed In San Rafael

In a 2 o'clock wedding ceremony on Saturday in the First Presbyterian Church in San Rafael, Patricia Elizabeth Slayton of San Rafael became the bride of Steven Jon Dedina III of San Francisco.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell D. Slayton of San Rafael.

Officiating for the ceremony was the Rev. W. L. Bone of Menlo Park, great uncle of the bride, and Dr. Henry Kuizenga of San Anselmo.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and Alencon lace. Her cathedral length lace veil was worn by her mother at her wedding.

Linda Warren of San Rafael was matron of honor and bridesmaids included Mrs. E. C. Martin of Irvington, the bride's cousin, and the Misses Laura Tognazzini of Guadalupe; Judith Maestretti, Petaluma and Nadine Data of San Rafael.

They were gowned in ankle length sheaths of sapphire peau d' soire and with matching pillbox headdresses.

George Branch of San Francisco served the bridegroom as best man. Ushering were Donald Shawl of San Leandro; Richard Schimmel, Berkeley; Donald Brettner, Palo Alto and Kenneth Bone of San Jose, the bride's cousin.

A reception for 350 guests followed the ceremony in the parlors of the church.

The bride was graduated from San Rafael High School and Dominican College. She is a teacher in the Nicasio Elementary School. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Emerson Bone of Santa Rosa and the late Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Slayton.

The bridgroom, son of Mrs. Herbert N. Salyer of San Francisco and Prof. S. J. Dedina, now residing in Europe, was graduated from Washington High School and the University of California. He is now a student at the University of San Francisco School of Law.

Following the wedding trip to the Sierra snow country, the newlyweds will make their home in Fairfax.

Clubs To Teach Square Dancing To Beginners

Square dancing, a big indoor activity at all seasons, is in full swing at this time of year.

Of the county's 10 clubs, three are involved in beginners' classes now. Stump Jumpers of Novato meet each Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at IDESI Hall, with the club caller, Bill Gamble, as instructor. Regular admission to the class is closed, though Dave Milano may make special arrangements for prospective dancers.

Buzzin' Boots, who dance at Star Hall in San Anselmo, have a class still open to new dancers. Their first class night was Feb. 2, and will continue each Friday at 7:30 p.m., with Bill Owen as the instructor.

Latest to announce a beginners' class is the Tumbleweeds Square Dance Club, which also meets at Star Hall in San Anselmo, on Monday evenings at 7:30 for new dancers, beginning with Feb. 26. Sparky Sparks will teach the classes. Lee Monti of San Rafael is the co-ordinator.

Red-Heads Have More Sensitivity To Pain

CHICAGO (UPI) — Red-heads are hypersensitive to pain, blonds feel less pain than red-haired persons and brunets are least sensitive to pain, Dr. John S. Lundy reports.

The pain researcher from the Veterans Administration Research Hospital in Chicago also said the patient's occupation nationality and place of residence influence ability to stand pain.

On the panel will be architect Dave Thorne of Berkeley, who has designed homes in Marin and is a leading exponent of the use of steel as an architectural material.

Other panelists will be Don Moyer, structural engineer of Chin and Hensolt, San Francisco; Otto Schrader of Schrader Iron Works, San Francisco steel fabricators and erectors, and Wally Burr, Oakland building contractor. Ed Stuber, sales engineer for Bethlehem Steel Co., will act as moderator.

He is an escaper from a Kentucky mental institution.

Lloyds Asked To Insure Life Of John Glenn

LONDON (AP)—Lloyds of London, insurance brokers, have been asked to insure the life of American astronaut Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr., a Lloyds spokesman has disclosed.

He said the policy, for around 34,000 pounds ($95,200) was taken out with an American insurance company, which asked Lloyds underwriters last month to reinsure part of the risk. The policy covered preparations for Glenn's flight, the flight itself, and the recovery of his space capsule.

The American company was understood to have quoted a rate of 2½ per cent of the value of the policy.

Lloyds underwriters offered a quotation on the reinsurance but it is not known whether the American insurance company has yet placed the business with them.

The beneficiaries of the policy were not known here but the Lloyds spokesman said it was a safe assumption that it was a close relative.

This is the first time Lloyds have been asked to insure a man in space.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Just Like A Poem Or A Tree, Bridge Hand Can Be Beautiful

I think that I may never see a bridge hand lovely as one played by Albert Morehead some years ago. His quiet play at the seventh trick still excites by admiration.

Opening lead — ♠ 8

Perhaps Morehead overbid the South hand a trifle. North first made the "negative" response of two diamonds and then very properly raised hearts.

East captured the jack of spades with the king and returned a trump to the queen. Morehead tried to sneak the queen of diamonds through, but West stepped up with the ace of diamonds and led his other spade. Dummy's nine lost to the ten.

East returned another trump, and Morehead decided against trying to ruff his last club in dummy. It was too likely that one of the high clubs would be ruffed.

DIFFERENT PLAN: Instead Morehead drew the last missing trump and then made his quiet move. He simply cashed the king of diamonds, discarding the deuce of spades from dummy.

It was an important discard. Morehead simply had to get rid of that deuce.

The next step was to ruff the ten of diamonds with dummy's last trump and return the four of spades. As Morehead well knew, East was a player of only moderate ability. East would have played the ace of spades if the queen had been led from dummy, but he didn't dream of playing the ace on dummy's four.

When East played the three of spades, Morehead discarded the deuce of clubs. And this was the entire plot. He had to steal the trick with a play that seemed perfectly natural.

It wouldn't have been natural to lead the four of spades through East if dummy still had the deuce of spades. East might have started to think, and he would have seen that it could cost nothing to play the ace of spades. This would leave Morehead with no place to park the deuce of clubs.

That simple discard appeals to me more than the gaudiest squeeze or trump coup.

DAILY QUESTION: Partner opens with one club, and the next player passes. You hold:

♠ Q J 9 4 2
♥ 7 6 4 2
♦ 8
♣ 7 4 3

What do you say:

Answer: Pass. You might respond in spades over an opening bid of one diamond, simply because you have such poor support for diamonds. There is no such excuse for responding to one club with such a terrible hand.

ORDINANCE NO. 742
AN ORDINANCE REGULATING FOOD HANDLING IN THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL.

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS

A. "Food" as referred to in this Ordinance means all articles used for human consumption as food, drink, confectionery, or condiment, whether simple or compound.

B. "Food Establishment" as referred to in this Ordinance means any building, room, stand, vehicle, enclosure, place, space, or area where any cooked or uncooked article of food is stored, prepared, manufactured, processed, wrapped, canned, packed, bottled, distributed, served, or displayed exceptitng that private dwellings in which food is handled by and for only the occupants of those dwellings and their household guests are not included in this definition.

C. "Health Officer" as referred to in this Ordinance means the Health Officer of Marin County, or his authorized representative.

D. "Person" as referred to in this Ordinance means an individual, firm, corporation, partnership, club, association, or organization.

E. "Employee" as referred to in this Ordinance means any person working in a food establishment, whether with or without pay, who handles food during any phase of its storage, preparation, manufacture, distribution, serving, or display, or who comes in contact with food equipment, utensils, or machinery. (The owner of a food establishment, if engaged in food handling, is subject to the same requirements as any other person so engaged.)

SECTION 2. CERTIFICATES

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate any food establishment within the City of San Rafael without a valid certificate issued by the County Health Officer or his authorized representative. Such certificate shall bear the date of expiration and shall be displayed prominently in the place of business for which it is issued.

No certificate to operate such place of business shall be issued until all of the provisions of this Ordinance and of the California Restaurant Act, and all rules and regulations of the State Board of Public Health, have been complied with. Further, no certificate to operate shall be issued until there is presented to the County Health Officer satisfactory evidence that each and every employee of the establishment has had, within the preceding twelve months, an appropriate test indicating freedom from tuberculosis in a communicable stage. Such test shall be a negative minifilm or other x-ray of the chest or a negative tuberculin skin test. If the test done to satisfy this requirement does not definitely indicate freedom from contagious tuberculosis and further medical investigation of the food handler is necessary in order to reach a definite conclusion, the food handler may, at the discretion of the Health Officer, continue to work pending completion of necessary medical studies, if, in the opinion of the Health Officer, no public health hazard will arise as a result of the individual's continued employment as a food handler. If a food establishment has in its employ one or more persons who are being allowed by the Health Officer to continue to work pending completion of tests to determine the presence or absence of contagious tuberculosis, such establishment shall be issued a certificate that shall expire at a date determined by the Health Officer but not later than three months from date of issuance. When all employees of a food establishment have been proven free of tuberculosis in a communicable state and all other requirements of this Ordinance have been met, a regular certificate to operate shall be issued that shall be valid for six months from date of issuance. If contagious tuberculosis is proven in any of the employees of a food establishment, such employees shall be immediately excluded from the food establishment; if such employees are not excluded, the certificate to operate shall be immediately suspended by the Health Officer for the protection of the public health. A certificate is not transferable upon change of ownership of a food establishment.

Inspections under this Ordinance shall be based upon provisions of the California Restaurant Act and on rules and regulations of the State Board of Public Health and subsequent modification thereof.

A certificate may be suspended by the Health Officer for violation of any provision of this Ordinance —but not until after the holder has been given an opportunity for a hearing before the Health Officer except that a certificate shall be immediately suspended if employees with contagious tuberculosis or other communicable disease are not immediately excluded from the food establishment as ordered by the Health Officer. After the hearing a reasonable time shall be allowed by the Health Officer for correction of the violations. During that correctional period the certificate may be suspended, and the food establishment may be ordered closed during the suspension if the Health Officer deems such action necessary for the protection of the public health. The suspension shall be lifted if full compliance with sanitary requirements is obtained at the end of the time allowed; if compliance is not obtained, the certificate shall then be revoked.

SECTION 2.1. EMPLOYMENT AFTER CERTIFICATION

After the issuance of any certificate hereunder, and during the full life of such certificate, no person shall be employed in such food establishment except those whom the Health Officer shall have cleared or approved at the time of such certification, or other personnel who shall have been certificated or approved by him thereafter, but prior to commencing work.

SECTION 3. PENALTIES

Any person who operates a food establishment within the City of San Rafael without a valid certificate from the County Health Officer is guilty of a misdemeanor. Each offense may be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty-Five ($25.00) Dollars nor more than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, or by imprisonment in the County Jail for a term not to exceed six (6) months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 4. EFFECTIVE DATE AND PUBLICATION

This Ordinance shall be publish once in full before its final passage in the Independent-Journal, a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in the City of San Rafael, and shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after its final passage.

SECTION 5. VALIDITY OF ORDINANCE

If any action, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Ordinance. The City Council of the City of San Rafael hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Should Couple File Joint Federal Return

By PETER J. WIKEL C.P.A.

Should you file a joint Federal return?

If you were married on Dec. 31, 1961 you may file a joint return with your spouse regardless of how long a time you have been married and regardless of whether or not your spouse has income.

P. J. WIKEL

If your net taxable income is over $2,000 a joint return will result in a lower tax.

In making a joint return you include all the income, exemptions and deductions of both the husband and wife. In heading the return you list both names. For instance: John J. and Mary M. Doe. Also, you show both social security numbers and both occupations if both have income. It is not necessary that both have income in order to file a joint return.

Husband and wife must both sign and date a joint return. Each assumes the responsibility for any tax due. If one does not pay, then the other must. If you are entitled to a refund, the check will be issued in both names and both will have to endorse the check before cashing.

In some cases it is not possible to secure the signature of your spouse directly on the tax return. It is possible to file a joint return without having your spouse actually sign the return itself. This is done by having the spouse sign Treasury Department form 936 which is an authorization to prepare, sign and file a joint income tax return.

A signed copy of this form 936 is attached to the return in lieu of the spouse's signature.

If any tax has been paid separately, by withholding or on an estimate, full credit may be taken on the joint return.

Part of the fun of coming home . . . today's news today

Each evening, the I-J offers you a world premiere of the news—a first showing of events as they happened that very day.

It makes a difference, in these fast-changing times. In the I-J you're kept abreast of today, not behind it. You don't have to wait 'til tomorrow to read what the President said, what the U.N. did, or what happened in the capitals of the world. You're "up" on the news—always.

This is one of the reasons why the I-J has become a part of daily living in Marin County. Seven out of ten families make it "their" paper.
